Area's Agreement Sought For New Bridge Location

Governors Set Meeting On 3 Sites

Tentative OK Seen As Key Move For Constructing Span

Tentative agreement from East Liverpool and Chester area government and civic officials on a site for a new Ohio River bridge was to be sought this afternoon as a step for replacing the condemned Chester Bridge.

Ohio Gov. James Rhodes and West Virginia Gov. Arch Moore were to meet once again in a move to expedite construction of a new structure to alleviate a major transportation crisis in the tri-state area.

The two executives conferred at the Huntington, W. Va., airport Thursday on bridge needs here and at St. Marys, W. Va.

Officials from East Liverpool, Chester, Columbiana County and Hancock County were to convene with the two governors at the Potters Savings & Loan Co. annex on Broadway.

AT YESTERDAY'S meeting Gov. Moore said West Virginia would be able to underwrite the cost of the new bridge "without much difficulty."

He emphasized the planned four-lane bridge "by sheer necessity" would be a toll span.

The Chester Bridge was closed Wednesday by the Ohio Department of Highways on the recommendation of an engineer firm which reported corrosion of cables on the Ohio side has made the safety factor uncertain.

Prime goal of today's meeting was to evaluate the opinion of district authorities on which of three proposed locations of the new bridge is acceptable.

Public hearings will be re-

48 American Aircraft Lost In Past Week

One Of Highest In Over 8 Years U.S. Has Been In War

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command announced today that 48 American helicopters and planes were lost in Vietnam during the past week. It was one of the highest aircraft tolls in the eight years and five months that the United States has been fighting in the Southeast Asian war.

The losses raised to 5,346 the number of American aircraft shot down, destroyed on the ground by enemy rocket, mortar and ground attacks, or lost due to operational failures during the war.

In the year since the peace talks began in Paris on May 13, 1968, the United States has lost 1,557 aircraft, or roughly one-third of the number lost in the previous seven years.

The 5,346 aircraft lost are estimated to have cost between $5 billion and $6 billion. The losses rose sharply during the past year despite a partial halt in the bombing of North Vietnam in April 1968, and a complete cessation last Nov. 1.

Of the total losses, 2,698 were fixed-wing planes and 2,648 were helicopters.

Of the 48 aircraft lost in the past week, 22 helicopters were shot down, 18 helicopters were lost to other causes, two fixed-wing planes were shot down and six fixed-wing aircraft were lost to other causes.

Kills Self At Plant

Berserk Man Kills 2 And Wounds 10

TWINSBURG, Ohio (AP)—An employe at the Chrysler Corp.'s stamping plant went berserk shortly before midnight Thursday, shot two fellow workers fatally and wounded 10 others before killing himself.

Summit County Sheriff Robert Campbell identified the assailant as Robert K. Smith, 31, of Mogadore, employed as an inspector at the plant.

Sam S. Zucchero, 57, of Alliance, one of those shot, was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Thomas Hospital in Akron. Vincent Bell, 39, Cleveland, died in Suburban Community Hospital, Warrensville Heights, about an hour after he was shot.

Sheriff Campbell said the shifts were changing when Smith arrived at the plant with three guns and started shooting. He said the firing lasted about 15 minues.

William Schuholz, of Akron, said he was leaving the plant when the assailant, a gun in each hand, shot two men just outside the main entrance to the plant.

"Then he went to a lunchroom about 50 feet from the entrance and started shooting again," Schuholz added. "I didn't stick around to see what happened after that."

Another eyewitness, Charles L. Harris, 64, of Cuyahoga Falls, said he was sitting at a lunch table with five other men when the assailant entered.

"I saw this guy walking up behind the guy sitting across the table from me," said Harris, who was wounded in the hand. "He had a gun in his hand. I thought it was a toy or a prank.

Senate Doves Hit At Nixon Peace Plans

Most Say He Fell Short, Willing To Give More Time

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's Vietnam peace proposals, initially praised by many congressmen, are being cautiously criticized as not going far enough by Senate Democratic doves, including Sen. Edward M. Kennedy.

But most of the senators who say Nixon fell short in his latest peace move are willing to give him more time to negotiate a settlement.

Senate Republicans, for the most part, appear unified in supporting Nixon's proposals.

Kennedy, the No. 2 Democratic leader, said all Americans hope the President's moves succeed.

"I had hoped, however, that in the interest of decreasing casualties and the hastening of negotiations towards the mutual withdrawal of troops, the President would have called for a significant reduction of U.S. military activity and personnel in South Vietnam," Kennedy said Thursday in a statement.

"It is my belief that such initiatives will be required if this conflict is to be soon ended."

Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, was more outspoken in expressing "bitter disappointment" at Nixon's speech.

Church charged the Nixon plan for ending the war is the same as that of former President Lyndon B. Johnson.

Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., like Church a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, said in an interview that while he thought the speech constructive, "I too, was disappointed that there wasn't a major new initiative.

"There was yet inherent in the President's speech, as in the Johnson policy, a determined application of Western values to a Southeast Asian country," Gore said.

Neither Rejects Whole Plan

Hanoi And Cong Denounce Nixon's Peace Proposals

PARIS (AP) — North Vietnam and the Viet Cong both denounced President Nixon's peace plan today, but neither rejected the plan as a whole.

Hanoi's chief negotiator in Paris, Xuan Thuy, told the weekly session of the Vietnam peace talks that the plan is an attempt to conceal American intentions of continuing aggression in Vietnam.

Tran Buu Kiem, representative of the National Liberation Front, said the plan was not a proper response to the problem.

Thuy asserted that the United States is bent "on maintaining its absurd demands and is continuing to intensify the war." He said Nixon's words could not camouflage the essential objectives of the United States—"to achieve neocolonialism in South Vietnam and perpetuate the partition of Vietnam."

Nixon "seeks at all costs to maintain his demand concerning the mutual withdrawal, a most absurd position which I have repeatedly rejected," Thuy declared.

Turning to Nixon's proposals for a political settlement, he said the President had talked about "the free choice of the South Vietnamese population." But he said Nixon is concerned only "with a free choice in his own fashion."

Thuy's main emphasis, however, was on the question of troop withdrawals. He repeated the demand in the Viet Cong's peace plan for the complete and unconditional withdrawal of U.S. and all other non-Vietnamese troops.

The question of U.S. troops, he said, is one to be discussed between the United States and the Vietnamese people.

"Th United States does not have the right to confuse this problem with problems to be discussed between the Vietnamese," he said, apparently referring to North Vietnames forces in South Vietnam.

The negotiators met today for the first time with concrete proposals before them. There was expectation on the U.S. side of real bargaining, much of it to be conducted undoubtedly in secret, and the speeches at the weekly plenary sessions were expected to provide few clues to what is taking place behind the scenes.

Park, Museum Funds

4 County Projects Wait House Action

Additional land for Beaver Creek State Park, funds for a pottery museum here and rehabilitation of the Rogers Honor Farm are included in a capital imrovements bill introduced in the Ohio House Thursday.

The $777,489 program would also include a new Bureau of Employment Services building at Salem.

State Rep. Ralph E. Fisher (R-Wooster) introduced the administration's measure for the 1969-71 biennium.

Heading the list of county projects is a recommendation for a $400,000 appropriation to buy additional land at the Beaver Creek State Park which currently consists of 1,749 acres.

A grant of $100,000 would be allotted for the pottery museum from funds created by a bond issue authorized under Issue No. 1 approved by voters in 1968.

The museum, according to present plans, would be established in an existing building to be acquired at no cost to the state, but which would require some rehabilitation. Use of the former Post Office building at Broadway is being sought for the museum.

The third item would be $35,989 for rehabilitation of the honor farm north of Rogers which is under the authority of the Ohio Youth Commission. The honor program would provide for housing of juvenile delinquents after the improvement project.

The fourth item is $214,500 for construction of a new BES structure at Salem. The agency currently is using rented quarters at Salem.

But Must Lift Cloud Over Court

Fortas Move Gives Nixon Chance To Fulfill Promise

WASHINGTON (AP) — Abe Fortas's resignation under fire from the Supreme Court gives President Nixon an opportunity to fulfill a campaign promise, but also leaves him the task of removing a cloud over the nation's highest tribunal.

Nixon is in no hurry to nominate a successor to Fortas who quit Thursday after a week-and-a-half ordeal for himself and the court—that started with disclosures he received $20,000 from the family of a man subsequently sent to prison for stick manipulation.

With the court scheduled to recess in mid-June, the President has plenty of time to find a successor, both to Fortas and to Chief Justice Earl Warren, who is resigning next month.

No new justice could act effectively on the court in such a short time. Also, a new appointment following closely on the heels of the Fortas affair might stir unwanted controversy.

The absence of the pressure of time will allow Nixon to move carefully, both in finding politically acceptable replacements and satisfying pubic concern about the integrity of the court raised by Fortas.

Both Warren and Fortas were of the liberal wing of the court, which has been under fire from conservatives for its social and racial decisions.

During his campagn last fall, Nixon appeared to join these critics and promised to appoint "strict constitutionalst" judges of a stricter law-and-order frame of mind.

Some of those mentioned recently as possible Nixon choices include Herbert Brownell, former attorney general in the Eisenhower administration; the current attorney general, John N. Mitchell; Nixon's secretary

Neither Rejects Whole Plan

Hanoi And Cong Denounce Nixon's Peace Proposals

PARIS (AP) — North Vietnam and the Viet Cong both denounced President Nixon's peace plan today, but neither rejected the plan as a whole.

Hanoi's chief negotiator in Paris, Xuan Thuy, told the weekly session of the Vietnam peace talks that the plan is an attempt to conceal American intentions of continuing aggression in Vietnam.

Tran Buu Kiem, representative of the National Liberation Front, said the plan was not a proper response to the problem.

Thuy's main emphasis, however, was on the question of troop withdrawals. He repeated the demand in the Viet Cong's peace plan for the complete and unconditional withdrawal of U.S. and all other non-Vietnamese troops.

The question of U.S. troops, he said, is one to be discussed between the United States and the Vietnamese people.

"Th United States does not have the right to confuse this problem with problems to be discussed between the Vietnamese," he said, apparently referring to North Vietnames forces in South Vietnam.

The negotiators met today for the first time with concrete proposals before them. Repairs Made To Route 68

Paul Dawson, superintendent of Beaver County Highways, said today repairs have been made to Route 68 between Midland and East Liverpool.

Work was speeded because of the anticipated increase in traffic created by the closing of the Chester Bridge.

Workmen filled potholes along the section, which is a link to the Shippingport Bridge east of Midland.

Midland Police Chief Vincent D'Itri said he has noticed some increase in traffic through the borough, but pointed out it is too early to tell just how much to expect.

Truck traffic through Midland increased when the weight limit was imposed on the Chester span.

Dawson said signs are being placed at the intersections of Route 18 and Legislative Route 482 (Kennedy Corners) and Routes 30 and 18.

The signs will be 5-by-1-foot with five-inch lettering.

Cardinal Wright To Bid Farewell To His Diocese

John Cardinal Wright will celebrate Pontifical Masses, extend his greetings and at the same time bid a fond farewell to the public in the five outlying counties of the six - county Pittsburgh Diocese next week.

For four evenings from Monday, May 19 through Thursday, May 22, he will appear in Lawrence, Butler, Beaver and Washington - Greene Counties, possibly for the last time before he leaves Pittsburgh early in June to take up his duties as the only American cardinal to be stationed with the Curia in Rome.

His first visit will be to New Castle in Lawrence County Monday evening, where he will celebrate Mass at New Castle's St. Mary's Church beginning at 8.

On Tuesday evening at the same hour he will offer Mass at St. Paul's Church in Butler.

His schedule then will take him to Immaculate Conception Church in Washington, Wednesday, May 21, where parishioners and his many public friends will be welcomed also at 8 p.m. The Mass in Washington is for all living in Washington and Greene Counties.

Beaver County residents will be visited by Cardinal Wright on Thursday, May 22, with Mass at St. Titus Church in Aliquippa, also at 8 p.m.

Cardinal Wright said that it is his hope that this schedule would enable him to meet with as many of the public as possible in the short time he still has in the Pittsburgh diocese before leaving for the Eternal City and his work in the Vatican.

In each of the cities Cardinal Wright visits he will meet with all priests of the particular counties at 6 p. m. before the Masses. Receptions also are planned in each city following the Masses.

Deans of each county in the diocese who are handling arrangements for Cardinal Wright's visits include Msgr. Joseph F. Fabbri, pastor of St. Vitus Church in New Castle; Msgr. Francis A. Glenn, pastor of St. Paul's in Butler; Msgr. William J. Maher, pastor of St. Jerome Church in Charleroi; Msgr. Raymond T. Schultz, pastor of Sts. Peter and Paul Church in Beaver; and Very Rev. Thomas J. Cassidy, pastor of St. Ignatius Church in Bobtown, Washington County.

Cardinal Wright celebrated his first public Mass in Pittsburgh as a member of the Sacred College on Sunday at St. Paul's Cathedral and during the afternoon also greeted thousands of the faithful from throughout the diocese.

Cardinal Wright plans to celebrate Mass at St. Paul's Cathedral on Pentecost Sunday, May 25, when he again will visit with the public following the service.

Financial Disclosure Movement

The resignation of Abe Fortas from the Supreme Court over criticism stemming from a controversial $20,000 fee is sure to give new impetus to a drive for legislation by Congress requiring federal judges and justices of the high court to disclose publicly their incomes outside official salares.

Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen called a few days ago for Congress to consider the requirement that justices publish data on their peripheral income.

He received support from House Speaker John W. McCormack and Republican House leader Gerald R. Ford.

At present no law requires such disclosure.

Federal judges and Supreme Court Justices were presumed to have been operating within the limits set by canon 24 of the American Bar Association's code of judicial ethics:

"A judge should not accept inconsistent duties; nor incur obligations, pecuniary or otherwise, which will in any way interfere or appear to interfere with his devotion to the expeditions and proper administration of his official functions."

Various codes and regulations govern disclosure of the financial status of senators, representatives and subcabinet employes. Cabinet members are subjected to close scrutiny by Senate committees in the confirmation process.

It seems that to avoid the appearance of impropriety in the judicial realm, a more detailed description of what is acceptable conduct on the part of court officials is required

Congress is in the mood to set the guidelines.

Better Way Needed

The so-called "withdrawal of services" of Western Beaver School District teachers this week as a result of failure to achieve salary requests was a totally unacceptable approach to solving differences with the board of education.

Any interruption of the public schooling of a community's young people cannot be justified professionally — nor legally in Pennsylvania.

This is not to say that the members of the Western Beaver Education Association nor any teachers group should not be able to bargain with a board of education on salary schedules, fringe benefits and other matters related to their duties.

Further, the board of education has a responsibility to maintain operations of the schools, and must face up to the realities of the 1960's in which proper negotiations are a fundamental obligation of employer and employe.

Pennsylvania legislators must resolve this present muddy situation in which bargaining is seemingly outlawed between elected officials and employe group.

A satisfactory arrangement has to be worked out for public employes to attain job benefits on a par with private business without resorting to strikes. The sooner the officials at Harrisburg can take the first steps toward such a procedure, the sooner students will cease being deprived of what their parents are paying for.

Meanwhile, the Western Beaver faculty and the school directors deserve commendation for resuming classroom sessions and making serious efforts to end the present impasse.

A Plan For Peace

The immense desire on the part of Americans for peace in Vietnam evidently is being read correctly by President Nixon.

The President's major policy speech on Vietnam represents the most specific outline so far on the U.S. peace program.

The stress was on flexibility as Mr. Nixon left himself some room for maneuvering later.

EVEN THE HINT of retaliatory military action if the Viet Cong offensive effort is stepped up, seemed directed at the hardliners in Hanoi more than anythng else.

It should be clear to Hanoi that now would be an opportune time to be receptive to peace offers.

Mr. Nixon not only cleared the way for a simultaneous withdrawal of all non-South Vietnamese, he mentioned the American record of post-war reconstruction assistance—implying the same could be true for Asia.

While ruling out unilateral withdrawal, Mr. Nixon indicated there could be a partial reduction in U.S. troops in coming months due to improvement in South Vietnamese fighting forces.

The flexibility theme ran throughout Mr. Nixon's address: "I would stress that these proposals are not offered on a take-it-or-leave it basis. We are quite willing to consider other approaches consistent with our principles."

The President made a significant effort to open all lines of communication in hopes of finding some means of reaching an agreement.

He chose to do it himself, rather than through Paris negotiators, to let restless American citizens know first-hand that a concerted peace attempt is being made.

THE PRESIDENT wisely cautioned against false hopes for an immediate settlement. Americans are all too familiar with the over-optimism bit.

Some reason for encouragement can be found, however, in the fact the administration is launching a strong peace offensive that gives the impression of being flexible enough to lead to a negotiated settlement that inevitably must come through compromise.

Key To Affordable Housing

AFL-CIO President George Meany doesn't like the way Housing and Urban Development Secretary George Romney is going about the business of developing new, lower-cost housing production techniques.

The specific technique to which Mr. Meany is objecting is govtrnment plans to build housing through factory-like assembly methods.

Apparently the AFL-CIO president is fearful of what this might do to building trades labor.

If we gauge the public temper correctly, prospective home builders couldn't care less what happens to the livelihood of the craftsmen who construct homes.

What is needed in this country are new homes that people can afford to buy. If the inflationary wage spirals initiated and perpetuated by the building tradesmen price homes out of the market, the only alternative is to go to some other method of construction.

More power to Mr. Romney in his efforts to find a way out. If the unions want to throw up a wall of opposition, they will have plenty of time to do so while they stand around wondering what hit them.

Mr. Meaney thinks Mr. Romney has "a fixation in his mind that you can turn out houses off a factory line like you turn out cars."

We remember the time when nobody believes cars could be turned out on an assembly line.

There will be no reason for assembly line houses when the cost of construction gets back to the sanity level.

Preparations In The Middle East

Slowly, but steadily, the Middle East appears to be drawing closer and closer to another war.

For quite some time the sparks of war which could kindle a major engagement have been flying back and forth between Israel and her Arab neighbors. Potentially any one of these incidents could have triggered a full-scale war. But so far they have failed to do so.

Now attention of the world is being drawn to another situation which could lead directly into major warfare—the buildup of forces on both sides of the Suez Canal.

DESPITE EFFORTS of the big powers to defuse the tense situation, and seemingly in complete disregard of the efforts of the United Nations, what appears to be preparation for war continues.

The United Arab Republic is believed to have massed at least 50,000 to 70,000 soldiers on the western bank of the canal, althrough some diplomatic sources insist the number is twice that figure. These troops are supported by 600 to 700 tanks and 800 heavy mortars and artillery pieces.

Israel is believed to have massed at least 50,000 to 70,000 soldiers on the western bank of the canal although some diplomatic sources insist the number is twice that figure. These troops are supported by 600 to 700 tanks and 300 heavy mortars and artillery pieces.

Israel is believed to have only 4,000 to 6,000 men on the east bank with about the same number in a mechanized reserve force ready to move up if a major thrust is made by the Arabs across the canal.

Tied in with the buildup by the Arabs are reports coming out of Egypt to the effect that some circles in Cairo are pressing for a battalion-size commando raid across the canal to "show the world we can do it and teach the Israelis a lesson."

Also indicative of what may be a fast-approaching, full-scale war was the statement this week by Israeli Defense Minister Moshe Dayan in which he said that Israel "may be forced to take the offensive" against Egypt if the Egyptians continue their shelling of Israeli positions across the Suez Canal.

The ineffectiveness of the United Nations became more evident this week as it became necessary to move the U.N. control center on the Israeli side of the canal some 30 miles back from the border to insure safety from the Egyptian artillery.

MRS. GOLDA MEIR, prime minister of Israel, has said that she does not believe that any conflict between her nation and the Arab countries will expand to ther parts of the world.

Iet us hope that Mrs. Meir's assessment of the situation is correct. But the continuing guerrilla warfare and the buildups give cause for jitters around the world.

A relatively small incident touched off World War I and it could happen again—hence the urgency for someone to come up with an effective plan for defusing the Middle East powder keg, or effectively isolating the war there from the rest of the world.

'Look At It This Way, People Get Killed Just Crossing The Street!'

VICTOR RIESEL

Kennedy In Humphrey Land

WASHINGTON — Ted Kennedy is no lapel grabber. So he may not have noticed the tiny silver buffalo some labor chiefs still wear in their lapels. It is the intriguing insignia of a small band of unionists who, as Sen. Gene McCarthy himself said, dug in their feet, lowered their heads and, like buffalo, would not be budged at the Democratic National Convention.

Victor Riesel

These "buffalo" stopped the Minnesota maverick. Now Ted Kennedy, moving with split-second political precision in reactivating Bob Kennedy's sprawling presidential campaign machine, carefully is planning to avoid being trampled by that herd of political-labor buffalo.

By no means is Sen. Kennedy taking for granted that labor's political manpower, money and muscle will remain loyal to the ever more proffessional Hubert Humphrey.

And, it seems to me, since the Loyal Order of Buffalo will be the balance of power in scores of primaries, city elections, convention delegation contests, and soon enough in the nominating convention itself, this becomes the make-or-break bloc to watch. Ted Kennedy's dedicated efforts to woo and win the powerful force neither Gene McCarthy nor his late brother could swing may well be the basic story of the Democratic drive to unseat Richard Nixon in '72.

SLOWLY, IMPERCEPTIBLY and quite unreported, Ted Kennedy appears to be winning over even the toughest of labor critics of those Kennedys. Much to the surprise of his strategists he was given a coveted place on the program at a mass gathering of some of the toughest and most pragmatic of labor men.

This was the 14th National Legislative Conference of the Building and Construction Trades Dept. (AFL-CIO). The 3,000 delegates speak for over 3.5 million skilled tradesmen. They are the elders of labor, the establishment, the inner political forces in hundreds of cities and many states.

These union chiefs, many of whom actually double as political leaders, such as the Plasterers' Frank Rosetti, head of New York's ancient Tammany Hall, can make or break a campaign by pouring it on or withholding money, manpower and precinct workers. Many of them were for Richard Nixon in 1960, expressed distinct distaste for Bob Kennedy during the interim years, and backed Mr. Nixon again in 1968.

About the time Ted Kennedy received his invitation to speak to the massive construction workers concentration, he heard from the original buffaloes, the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education (COPE). He was asked to speak to COPE's regional New England-New York COPE conference in Boston on May 27 along with Sen. Muskie. No doubt this had the approval of AFL-CIO Prssident George Meany, who truly and with deep emotion loved Jack Kennedy as a son and froze when he dealt with Bob Kennedy. And Mr. Meany is buffalo number one.

AND ON JUNE 10, Ted Kennedy will move even deeper into what once was Hubert Humphrey territory. On June 10, the Massachusetts senator will confere with some 250 legislative specialists, who'll gather here to develop policy for the United Steelworkers — the union. Whose national president, I. W. Abel, was Hubert Humphrey's labor campaign chairman.

But it is not always where "Ted is that the action is," said one of his intimates the other day. The Kennedy strategists are working a gigantic political Geiger counter in search of allies and new faces.

Recently, for example, they were the people behind a virtually unnoticed and unnoted but, it seems to me, significant luncheon here. On March 25 in the Hotel Statler, some 50 labor and liberal activists gathered to meet a handsome chap apparently little known ouside his home state of Colorado—Lt. Gov. Mark A. Hogan, a Democrat. The Kennedy team is gung-ho over Mr. Hogan.

At the luncheon were leaders and political directors of a string of unions, including the New York based ladies' garment workers, the communication workers, the machinists, steelworkers and those from transport.

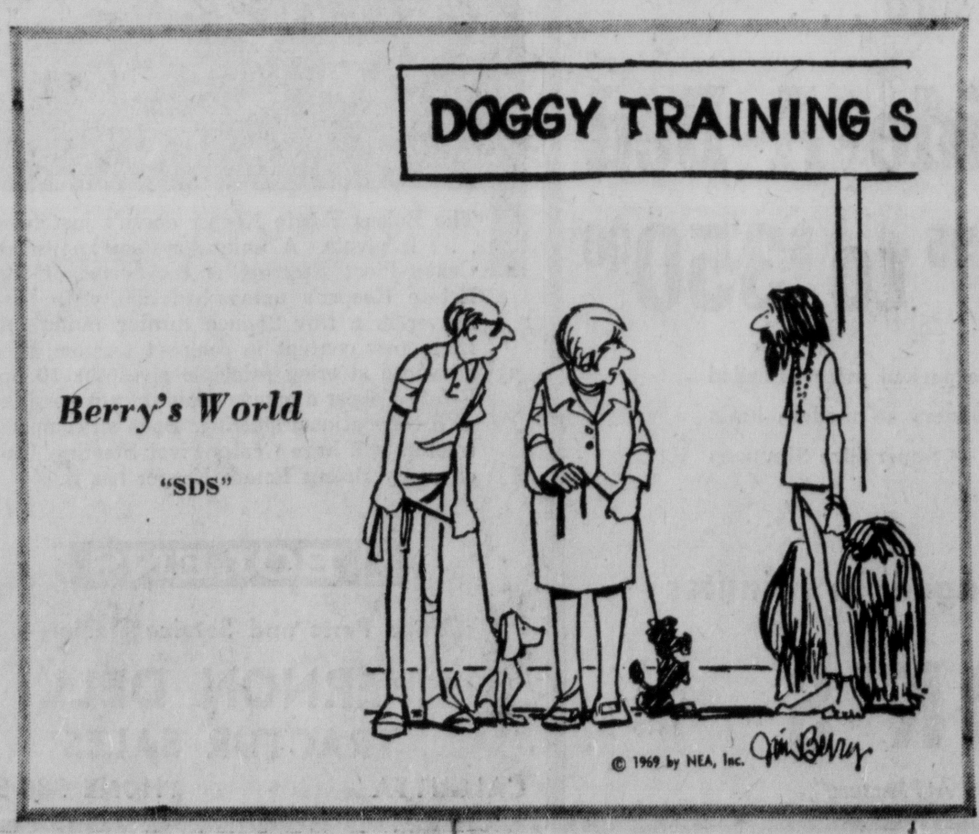
THE WORD IS they liked Mr. Hogan. And the Kennedy prophets predicted he would be one of their new national faces soon enough. It did not just happen. Joe Dolan is in Colorado. Insiders know that "Joe" was Bob Kennedy's Larry O'Brien and Kenny O'Donnell and now is in the center of "Ted's team."

Nothing just happens with the Kennedys. They work at it all the time. Theirs is not the happy-go-lucky operation of the dispersed strategists of Hubert H. Humphrey. The professor is taking academic seriously. He has just returned from visiting his old Social Democrat friend, Prime Minister Harold Wilson, in London. Now he's developing new techniques of university teaching.

In the next few weeks, he will moderate a forum of educators with former California Senator Thomas H. Kuckel. They'll tape the performance and, if it clicks, they'll televise it and plan for three other shows in 1970. Mr. Humphrey will be in politics when it's time for politics.

Absence may make the heart grow fonder but Prof. Humphrey will soon learn that his old labor allies don't always put their money, manpower and political muscle where their heart is.

They're a very practical herd of buffalo.



DAVID LAWRENCE

Two Views Of Vietnam

WASHINGTON — There are two ways to look at the Vietnam problem.

One is to be concerned about the political aspects inside this country—the unpopularity of the war, campus revolts against the draft and the feeling that the United States has no business sending troops to settle the "internal" affairs of a country 8,000 miles away.

The other is to take into account the possible consequences of a weakening of American policy, with the probability that the United States will be entangled in a war of much greater proportions in the next few years.

This could develop because of a belief around the world that America will not use its military power again to save any people from an aggression aided and abetted by the Soviet Union and Red China.

THIS FUNDAMENTAL principle in such a policy cannot be brushed aside just by making a "cease-fire" agreement, as was done in Korea. For the situation in the Far East has never been stablized since the Korean War.

The complete collapse of the United Nations is the cause of the trend toward more and more acts of aggression on the parts of imperialistic governments. Instead of the collective action provided for under the U.N. charter, the United States has had to stand up alone, without the aid of major powers, in the effort to thwart attempts to conquer South Vietnam.

Presidents Johnson and Nixon have endeavored, through peace negotiations at Paris, to achieve a settlement with North Vietnam.

But the recent 10-point proposal made by the "National Liberation Front," which is the political arm of the Viet Cong—the Communists in South Vietnam — shows clearly that there is not the slightest intention of making a peace treaty and that the most that would be accomplished would be an armistice such as prevails in Korea.

The 10-point proposal, for instance, demands that the United States and its allies withdraw "all troops, military personnel, arms and war materiel without posing any condition whatsoever."

"The parties shall reach agreement on an international supervision about the withdrawal from South Vietnam of the troops, military personnel, arms and war materiel of the United States and the other foreign countries of the American camp."

There is no machinery suggested for supervision of what the military forces of North Vietnam do in South Vietnam.

In the final analysis, the President of the United States is confronted with a decision as to whether the present peace negotiations are merely to be used as a device whereby America can somehow wriggle out of the Vietnam dilemma or whether the United States shall stand firmly on its original position.

Shall it continue the protection of South Vetnam by members of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization or give up the war and let the Communists overrun the various countries in Asia which they do not as yet occupy or control?

The United States has failed to pinpoint the role played by Red China and the Soviet Union throughout the world. The governments of both these countries have furnished billions of dollars to sustain the North Vietnamese military operation.

A RETREAT BY the United States from Vietnam could mean that the Russians would be encouraged, for instance, to assist East Germany in a possible invasion of West Germany It might also stimulate the Communists to intensify the Arab-Israel friction.

For, once the United States gives the slightest sign that it is returning to isolationism, the Communists will be quick to take advantage of this.

Such an attitude has been misconstrued abroad in the past and has led the United States into two world wars. The big question is whether history will repeat itself if the United States back down in Vietnam.

DESPITE EFFORTS of the big powers to defuse the tense situation, and seemingly in complete disregard of the efforts of the United Nations, what appears to be preparation for war continues.

The United Arab Republic is believed to have massed at least 50,000 to 70,000 soldiers on the western bank of the canal, although some diplomatic sources insist the number is twice that figure. These troops are supported by 600 to 700 tanks and 800 heavy mortars and artillery pieces.

Israel is believed to have massed at least 50,000 to 70,000 soldiers on the western bank of the canal although some diplomatic sources insist the number is twice that figure. These troops are supported by 600 to 700 tanks and 800 heavy mortars and artillery pieces.

Israel is believed to have only 4,000 to 6,000 men on the east bank with about the same number in a mechanized reserve force ready to move up if a major thrust is made by the Arabs across the canal.

Tied in with the buildup by the Arabs are reports coming out of Egypt to the effect that some circles in Cairo are pressing for a battalion-size commando raid across the canal to "show the world we can do it and teach the Israelis a lesson."

Also indicative of what may be a fast-approaching, full-scale war was the statement this week by Israeli Defense Minister Moshe Dayan in which he said that Israel "may be forced to take the offensive" against Egypt if the Egyptians continue their shelling of Israeli positions across the Suez Canal.

The ineffectiveness of the United Nations became more evident this week as it became necessary to move the U.N. control center on the Israeli side of the canal some 30 miles back from the border to insure safety from the Egyptian artillery.

MRS. GOLDA MEIR, prime minister of Israel, has said that she does not believe that any conflict between her nation and the Arab countries will expand to ther parts of the world.

Iet us hope that Mrs. Meir's assessment of the situation is correct. But the continuing guerrilla warfare and the buildups give cause for jitters around the world.

A relatively small incident touched off World War I and it could happen again—hence the urgency for someone to come up with an effective plan for defusing the Middle East powder keg, or effectively isolating the war there from the rest of the world.

Kennedy In Humphrey Land

WASHINGTON — Ted Kennedy is no lapel grabber. So he may not have noticed the tiny silver buffalo some labor chiefs still wear in their lapels. It is the intriguing insignia of a small band of unionists who, as Sen. Gene McCarthy himself said, dug in their feet, lowered their heads and, like buffalo, would not be budged at the Democratic National Convention.

Victor Riesel

These "buffalo" stopped the Minnesota maverick. Now Ted Kennedy, moving with split-second political precision in reactivating Bob Kennedy's sprawling presidential campaign machine, carefully is planning to avoid being trampled by that herd of political-labor buffalo.

By no means is Sen. Kennedy taking for granted that labor's political manpower, money and muscle will remain loyal to the ever more proffessional Hubert Humphrey.

And, it seems to me, since the Loyal Order of Buffalo will be the balance of power in scores of primaries, city elections, convention delegation contests, and soon enough in the nominating convention itself, this becomes the make-or-break bloc to watch. Ted Kennedy's dedicated efforts to woo and win the powerful force neither Gene McCarthy nor his late brother could swing may well be the basic story of the Democratic drive to unseat Richard Nixon in '72.

SLOWLY, IMPERCEPTIBLY and quite unreported, Ted Kennedy appears to be winning over even the toughest of labor critics of those Kennedys. Much to the surprise of his strategists he was given a coveted place on the program at a mass gathering of some of the toughest and most pragmatic of labor men.

This was the 14th National Legislative Conference of the Building and Construction Trades Dept. (AFL-CIO). The 3,000 delegates speak for over 3.5 million skilled tradesmen. They are the elders of labor, the establishment, the inner political forces in hundreds of cities and many states.

These union chiefs, many of whom actually double as political leaders, such as the Plasterers' Frank Rosetti, head of New York's ancient Tammany Hall, can make or break a campaign by pouring it on or withholding money, manpower and precinct workers. Many of them were for Richard Nixon in 1960, expressed distinct distaste for Bob Kennedy during the interim years, and backed Mr. Nixon again in 1968.

About the time Ted Kennedy received his invitation to speak to the massive construction workers concentration, he heard from the original buffaloes, the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education (COPE). He was asked to speak to COPE's regional New England-New York COPE conference in Boston on May 27 along with Sen. Muskie. No doubt this had the approval of AFL-CIO Prssident George Meany, who truly and with deep emotion loved Jack Kennedy as a son and froze when he dealt with Bob Kennedy. And Mr. Meany is buffalo number one.

AND ON JUNE 10, Ted Kennedy will move even deeper into what once was Hubert Humphrey territory. On June 10, the Massachusetts senator will confere with some 250 legislative specialists, who'll gather here to develop policy for the United Steelworkers — the union. Whose national president, I. W. Abel, was Hubert Humphrey's labor campaign chairman.

But it is not always where "Ted is that the action is," said one of his intimates the other day. The Kennedy strategists are working a gigantic political Geiger counter in search of allies and new faces.

Recently, for example, they were the people behind a virtually unnoticed and unnoted but, it seems to me, significant luncheon here. On March 25 in the Hotel Statler, some 50 labor and liberal activists gathered to méet a handsome chap apparently little known ouside his home state of Colorado—Lt. Gov. Mark A. Hogan, a Democrat. The Kennedy team is gung-ho over Mr. Hogan.

At the luncheon were leaders and political directors of a string of unions, including the New York based ladies' garment workers, the communication workers, the machinists, steelworkers and those from transport.

THE WORD IS they liked Mr. Hogan. And the Kennedy prophets predicted he would be one of their new national faces soon enough. It did not just happen. Joe Dolan is in Colorado. Insiders know that "Joe" was Bob Kennedy's Larry O'Brien and Kenny O'Donnell and now is in the center of "Ted's team."

Nothing just happens with the Kennedys. They work at it all the time. Theirs is not the happy-go-lucky operation of the dispersed strategists of Hubert H. Humphrey. The professor is taking academic seriously. He has just returned from visiting his old Social Democrat friend, Prime Minister Harold Wilson, in London. Now he's developing new techniques of university teaching.

In the next few weeks, he will moderate a forum of educators with former California Senator Thomas H. Kuckel. They'll tape the performance and, if it clicks, they'll televise it and plan for three other shows in 1970. Mr. Humphrey will be in politics when it's time for politics.

Absence may make the heart grow fonder but Prof. Humphrey will soon learn that his old labor allies don't always put their money, manpower and political muscle where their heart is.

They're a very practical herd of buffalo.

Two Views Of Vietnam

WASHINGTON — There are two ways to look at the Vietnam problem.

One is to be concerned about the political aspects inside this country—the unpopularity of the war, campus revolts against the draft and the feeling that the United States has no business sending troops to settle the "internal" affairs of a country 8,000 miles away.

The other is to take into account the possible consequences of a weakening of American policy, with the probability that the United States will be entangled in a war of much greater proportions in the next few years.

This could develop because of a belief around the world that America will not use its military power again to save any people from an aggression aided and abetted by the Soviet Union and Red China.

THIS FUNDAMENTAL principle in such a policy cannot be brushed aside just by making a "cease-fire" agreement, as was done in Korea. For the situation in the Far East has never been stablized since the Korean War.

The complete collapse of the United Nations is the cause of the trend toward more and more acts of aggression on the parts of imperialistic governments. Instead of the collective action provided for under the U.N. charter, the United States has had to stand up alone, without the aid of major powers, in the effort to thwart attempts to conquer South Vietnam.

Presidents Johnson and Nixon have endeavored, through peace negotiations at Paris, to achieve a settlement with North Vietnam.

But the recent 10-point proposal made by the "National Liberation Front," which is the political arm of the Viet Cong—the Communists in South Vietnam — shows clearly that there is not the slightest intention of making a peace treaty and that the most that would be accomplished would be an armistice such as prevails in Korea.

The 10-point proposal, for instance, demands that the United States and its allies withdraw "all troops, military personnel, arms and war materiel without posing any condition whatsoever."

"The parties shall reach agreement on an international supervision about the withdrawal from South Vietnam of the troops, military personnel, arms and war materiel of the United States and the other foreign countries of the American camp."

There is no machinery suggested for supervision of what the military forces of North Vietnam do in South Vietnam.

In the final analysis, the President of the United States is confronted with a decision as to whether the present peace negotiations are merely to be used as a device whereby America can somehow wriggle out of the Vietnam dilemma or whether the United States shall stand firmly on its original position.

Shall it continue the protection of South Vetnam by members of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization or give up the war and let the Communists overrun the various countries in Asia which they do not as yet occupy or control?

The United States has failed to pinpoint the role played by Red China and the Soviet Union throughout the world. The governments of both these countries have furnished billions of dollars to sustain the North Vietnamese military operation.

A RETREAT BY the United States from Vietnam could mean that the Russians would be encouraged, for instance, to assist East Germany in a possible invasion of West Germany It might also stimulate the Communists to intensify the Arab-Israel friction.

For, once the United States gives the slightest sign that it is returning to isolationism, the Communists will be quick to take advantage of this.

Such an attitude has been misconstrued abroad in the past and has led the United States into two world wars. The big question is whether history will repeat itself if the United States back down in Vietnam.

A "treat instead of a treatment" might be changed to an enjoyable "treat of a treatment" for about 70 junior class girls at East Liverpool High School taking part in a charm program sponsored by the East Liverpool Jaycees.

The project, co-ordinated by Miss Jo Ann Bradfield, junior and senior English teacher, was started in April.

The girls are learning poise, grooming (hair and makeup) selection of clothing and accessories, posture (walking and sitting), exercise, public appearance, speech, interviewing and manners (Table and social graces).

Inspiration for the program was the pageants that have become a regular part of the East Liverpool and Wellsville Jaycee activities.

Members of the East Liverpool Jaycees, particularly Frank Moss, believed that East Liverpool contestants would have more opportunity if a course in these areas was offered.

THE COURSE is expected to aid the girls in developing poise and social graces which will be beneficial not only in contests but throughout life.

It will help prepare them for college and future positions such as airline stewardess, receptionist, secretary, professional or amateur modeling and many others as well as participation in pageants.

Miss Bradfield instructs the girls, and also arranges for professional instruction and demonstrations.

A guest instructor has been Mrs. Lois McHenry who has advised the girls on cosmetics Mrs. Paul Hruska, former model and wife of another high school teacher, has worked with them on posture and modeling.

Recently the girls set up the tea for "Miss Eastern Ohio" contestants, and Miss Columbiana County of 1968, Sandy Ciotti of Salem, spoke to the girls during the tea.

Approximately 50 of the 70 girls are present each week at mettings held at the school. A special summer program is planned, including a chartered bus to the "Miss Ohio Pageant" at Cedar Point, a fashion show in the Tri-state Pottery Festival in East Liverpool in June, and continued weekly meetings.

MISS MARIE GIPE of Chambersburg, Pa., known as "Miss Enthusiasm" and author of "The Feminine Look," is to be a guest speaker in the near future. Miss Gipe has judged many beauty contests and has a scheduled program on WSTV, Steubenville.

Mrs. Virginia Bream, fashion consultant for Strouss-Hirshberg's Department Store in Youngstown, will speak on fashions and Brenda Casey Majoris of Follansbee, W. Va., "Miss Weirton," will speak to the girls about her speciality —talent.

Jackie Mayer of Ohio, Miss America of 1963, is also expected to meet with the girls if final plans can be worked out.

"It is a problem," Miss Bradfield said, "to get guest personnel, since there is no money involved in the program. The girls pay no dues and have no money making projects. Many guest speakers do have fees."

—:—

A FALL FASHION show is planned, and conclusion of the program will be the East Liverpool High School "Posture Emphasizes Personality" (PEP) Week in the fall.

A PEP Queen will be selected and awarded a trophy by the Jaycees. The fashion show will highlight the conclusion of the Charm Program.

Points are being earned throughout the program for participation in various events and activities. Each girl successfully completing the study program will be presented a certificate at a mother-daughter luncheon acknowledging her participation.

Some of the girls are now modeling for the D. M. Ogilvie Co. on Saturday afternoons.

Miss Bradfield is donating her time to work with the girls. She says, "I believe it fills a much needed gap in their education, and I am looking forward to continuing the program with a new group of junior girls after this group has completed the course."

Lisbon Residents Endorse Bypass, Hit Rt. 517 Plan

LISBON — Local residents spoke in favor of the proposed Route 45 bypass here at a public hearing Thursday afternoon in the high school gymnasium.

There was solid opposition, however, to the state's plan for Route 517 (the Lisbon - East Fairfield Rd.)

A tape recording being forwarded to P. E. Masheter, director of highways, contains 15 statements in favor of the proposed rerouting of 45 and 15 statements against the current plan to block 517 with the new 45 "corridor."

Only one resident Mrs. John Strudthoff of N. Market St., spoke against taking 45 out of town. She said it would mean less business for the village.

—:—

SEVERAL others said they believe the new four - lane divided highway running east and west just north of the corporation line will be a barrier to growth northward.

Sherman S. Price, design and planning engineer for the Ohio Highway Department's Division 11 at New Philadelphia, presided.

Up for consideration were:

The proposed rerouting of Route 45 over new Route 11 from West Point to a point four-tenths of a mile north of its crossing with Church Hill Rd. about 1.5 miles east of the fairgrounds;

The proposed Route 45 "corridor" from that point westward to existing Route 45 near the Saltwell Rd. junction about three-tenths of a mile north of town, and

The abandonment to the county and village of Routes 45 and 517 when the new highways are in use.

The length of Route 45 on Route 11 would be 6.2 miles, while the corridor is 1.8 miles long.

—:—

EXPLAINING the corridor line, Price said the state proposes to build Route 45 across Route 517 and over Route 164 (the Lisbon - Columbiana Rd.) on a bridge.

Since Route 517 would be blocked by the limited access highway, the state proposes to build an auxiliary Route 517, just north of the corridor and parallel to it, to connect with Route 164.

Price said auxiliary 517 could be built for about $24,000, while the cost of bridging 517 would be $193,000.

Price said the corridor location is the one that best fits the future of U. S. Route 30 westbound from Route 45. Extended westerly from Route 45, the Route 30 corridor would take only a small portion of the McKinley Boy Scout Camp and join existing Route 30 near the Route 172 "Y" west of Lisbon.

Price said the proposed Route 45 corridor would take seven residences, one church (Lisbon Baptist Temple) and a set of farm buildings and farmhouse.

"Only the east on and off ramps will be constructed as part of this project," Price said.

He said the federal government will pay half the construction costs. The state will bear the full cost of obtaining the right-of-way.

Howard Pfeiffer, relocation advisory assistance program adviser, and Van Adamson, division right-of-way acquisition supervisor, spoke briefly. Others present from Division 11 were Levi Kimball, deputy director; Anthony Longer, preliminary design engineer, and Leda Haver, Price's secretary.

Price said the project is programmed for 1972 and could be placed for contracts after July 1, 1971.

—:—

OPPOSING the Route 517 proposal were County Commissioners Charles J. Gause, who said "I think we should have a bridge;" David Miller, Lodge Thorne, Charles Yoos, Warren Browne, Charles Rogan, Robert A. Williams, Pete Gallo, Samuel Drakulich, William Jones, Robert Ashton, John Marshall, Don Adams, County Commissioner R. Max Gard and County Engineer Bert A. Dawson Jr.

Dawson said he would be opposed to the closing of 517 since snow-removal trucks use that route to service 10 county roads to the east.

Thorne said auxiliary 517, being built at a lower level than new 45, "would be a snow bank." He said, "The state put in a bridge for two families on Route 11 down near West Point and I can't see why it can't put one in for 14 families."

Miller said, "Your bypass on 517 will be nothing but an accident hazard." Yoos and Ashton agreed.

Speaking in favor of the Route 45 relocation were H. Jud English, manager of the Columbiana County Motor Club at East Liverpool; Miller, Thorne, Brown, George Kelch, Mayor Clyde B. Pike, Williams, James L. Morrissey, regional planning commission director; G. V. Weinstock, chairman of the Lisbon area Chamber of Commerce, on behalf of the Chamber board; Gallo, Miss Lois Wolfe, Harold Kepner, Drakulich, Jones and Gard.

James W. Boyd of East Liverpool, president of the board of county commissioners, told the Division 11 group, "I think you have done wonderfully well with this layout; I want to congratulate you."

Kelch said the relocation of Route 30 west would be a great advancement for this community. "These proposals you are presenting are the best thing that has happened since we lost the railroads years ago," he added.

Approximately 100 attended the hearing. Price said written statements for or against the proposals may be submitted to Deputy Director Kimball at New Philadelphia until May 26.

Report Slated On Route 62

COLUMBUS, Ohio — The State Controlling Board Thursday authorized the State Highway Department to hire consulting engineers to prepare a design report and plans for construction of 10 miles of new Route 62 in Columbiana, Stark and Mahoning Counties.

The 10-mile section of proposed new Route 62 is between Route 225 in eastern Stark County to proposed relocated Route 14A in Mahoning County east of Salem.

The proposed new Route 62 will run eastward north of Alliance, Sebring and Salem.

The estimated cost for the four - lane Route 62 with a 60-foot median strip is $10,533,009. Construction is expected to get under wav in 1971.

The project will connect Youngstown with a direct expressway route to Salem, Alliance, Canton and Western Mahoning County.

The controlling board's action follows more than a decade of work by the Alliance and Salem Chambers of Commerce and citizen groups.

The project also follows several meeting by the area's three state representatives, Clarence L. Wetzel, R - Columbiana; James Thorpe, R - Alliance, and Walter Paulo, R - Canfield, with highway officials.

The legislators pointed out that the area long has lagged behind many parts of the state in super - highway construction.

"The action of the controlling board means the department of highways is taking this project seriously," they said.

However, all agreed that it will require considerable more effort to ensure completion of the project.

But Miss Resnick explained that the office will be open on Saturdays in the future when a deadline is near. The Saturday operation will apply to candidates' filing deadlines, East Liverpool voter registration and the issuance of absentee and disabled voters' ballots, she said.

Bridge

quired in Ohio and in West Virginia on the sites, but the two governors yesterday said obtaining tentative agreement on a site now would facilitate the legal procedures.

—:—

OF THE three sites suggested in a feasibility study made for West Virginia, two were given priority at yesterday's discussion.

A bridge site linking the Chester shore with the Ohio side on a line with Washington St., East Liverpool, was termed impractical because of the amount of downtown property which would be required for approaches.

The other two locations would be just upstream from the present Chester Bridge and another farther north, crossing the river over the lower end of Babb's Island.

Gov. Moore pointed out the northernmost location would provide direct connection with Route 30 at the Chester hill, making an easiter approach and relocating the Route 30 traffic flow from Carolina Ave., Chester, a traffic congestion problem for many years.

The West Virginia governor said this upstream site would be more expensive, but that the state would be willing to undertake it because of the added advantages of traffic flow.

HE INDICATED this would be an additional problem for construction on the Ohio side due to the steep hillside between the Pennsylvania Ave. 'Hill Road' and the River Rd.

The new span would link with the planned extension of the Freeway from 3rd St. and Jefferson St. to Mulberry St. in the East End. A report from the Glaus, Pyle & Schomer firm of Youngstown, consulting engineers, is awaited by the Ohio Department of Highways in order for the department to formally consider the three sites.

However, the meeting of the two governors yesterday and the gathering today is seen as a preliminary move to weigh the sites and make a recommendation so as to expedite the procedures as much as possible.

The two leaders said yesterday they wanted the local officials on both sides of the river to be fully informed and to be in agreement on the sites before state action.

GOV. MOORE told his Ohio counterpart seven new bridges may have to be built across the Ohio River. He did not name the other five locations.

The two agreed on a joint effort to build a new bridge between Newport, Ohio, and St. Marys, W. Va. where the present span has been closed to traffic. It is similar to the Silver Bridge which collapsed at Point Pleasant in December 1967, killing 46.

Rep. Clarence Wetzel, who attended yesterday's gathering, said he will continue to press for passage of a bill introduced in the House Tuesday which would enable the Ohio Bridge Commission to erect spans. The commission presently can only purchase already constructed bridges.

West Virginia highway officials and State Police were to inspect the highway congestion at the south side of the Newell Bridge today.

The Homer Laughlin China Co., parents firm of the Newell Bridge Co., has revised the work schedule of the pottery employes to ease the 3 p. m. peak traffic congestion.

Departments are releasing workers at 2, 2:30, 3 and 3:30 p. m. instead of the previous general 3 p. m. quitting time. Other industries are continuing their regular schedules.

Glenn Hall of the bridge firm said the traffic flow is improving over the first day problems. He said the bridge is operating "fairly smoothly."

A Hancock County Deputy Sheriff directs traffic at the peak hours. Hall said the traffic control period may have to be extended.

Traffic over the span has tripled, Hall said, since the Chester Bridge was closed to all traffic Wednesday.

District Youth Critical After Auto Accident

A Beaver Falls youth is in "critical" condition at Pittsburgh Mercy Hospital with head injuries following a spectacular auto accident in Bridgewater at 12:30 a. m. today.

Larry Ivicek, 18, driver, was transferred to Pittsburgh from Rochester General Hospital.

Two passengers also were injured. They are William Clayton, 19, of Beaver Falls, owner of the car, and Donald Bowers, 18, of Darlington RD 2. Both are is "fair" condition at Rochester General.

The mishap caused a total of $6,500 in damages, with four new 1969 model cars involved.

Police said the accident occurred when Ivicek lost control while entering Route 51 from the River Rd. The vehicle struck three guardrails, bounced off, swerved right and into the Friend Pontiac Sales, where it rammed three new cars and a light pole. The car then pivoted and sheared another light pole, which fell on the roof of a fourth new car.

of state, William P. Rogers; former Justice Arthur J. Goldberg; and two federal court of appeals judges, Henry Friendly and Warren Burger.

But perhaps more important is the appointment of new justices who will still any doubt that the court is a citadel of objectivity and probity.

The shadow fell on the court a week ago last Sunday when Life magazine reported that Fortas, shortly after being seated on the Supreme Court, had accepted and kept for 11 months a $20,000 fee from the family foundation of Louis E. Wolfson, a Florida industrialist and former client.

Fortas, appointed to the court in 1965, at first said he had been tendered a fee to do writing and research for the foundation regarding racial problems and human rights, but had returned the money because he didn't have the time. He did not say then how much money was involved or how long he kept the fee.

Thomas Webber of St. George St. advised the board sewage is backing up in manholes in the district in an area where youngsters have been found playing in it.

Webber said he has already notified the Ohio Department of Health and other government agencies about the condition.

He said raw sewage is being channeled into the Ohio River from a sewer serving the area which is not on the city sewer lines.

Surface water lying in pools along the Penn Central Railroad right of way near Mulberry was also reported.

The board authorized letters to the city sewage department and to the railroad requesting action to be taken on the two problems within a week.

Sanitarian Ben Weber reported 94 investigations made last month and ten milk samples taken.

Health Commissioner Jack Boner reported 90 investigations.

Miss Selma Ladzinski, health nurse, made investigations into 143 cases. This included 51 tuberculosis cases, 30 adult health, 52 child health, and 10 mental health cases. Mrs. Louella Bevan, registrar of vital statistics, reported 77 births (47 male, 30 female) and 40 deaths (21 male, 16 female, 3 children) for the period April 18-May 14.

Food handling permits for persons selling food at the forthcoming Pottery Festival was discussed. Dr. J. K. Rugh presided. Other board members present were Dr. Herschel Rubin, Don Mackey and Paul Zehnder.

The first electrical railway was in England, the Liverpool Overhead Railway, which began operations in February 1893.

At Public Hearing

Lisbon Residents Endorse Bypass, Hit Rt. 517 Plan

LISBON — Local residents spoke in favor of the proposed Route 45 bypass here at a public hearing Thursday afternoon in the high school gymnasium.

There was solid opposition, however, to the state's plan for Route 517 (the Lisbon - East Fairfield Rd.)

A tape recording being forwarded to P. E. Masheter, director of highways, contains 15 statements in favor of the proposed rerouting of 45 and 15 statements against the current plan to block 517 with the new 45 "corridor."

Only one resident Mrs. John Strudthoff of N. Market St., spoke against taking 45 out of town. She said it would mean less business for the village.

—:—

SEVERAL others said they believe the new four - lane divided highway running east and west just north of the corporation line will be a barrier to growth northward.

Sherman S. Price, design and planning engineer for the Ohio Highway Department's Division 11 at New Philadelphia, presided.

Up for consideration were:

The proposed rerouting of Route 45 over new Route 11 from West Point to a point fourtenths of a mile north of its crossing with Church Hill Rd. about 1.5 miles east of the fairgrounds;

The proposed Route 45 "corridor" from that point westward to existing Route 45 near the Saltwell Rd. junction about three-tenths of a mile north of town, and

The abandonment to the county and village of Routes 45 and 517 when the new highways are in use.

The length of Route 45 on Route 11 would be 6.2 miles, while the corridor is 1.8 miles long.

—:—

EXPLAINING the corridor line, Price said the state proposes to build Route 45 across Route 517 and over Route 164 (the Lisbon - Columbiana Rd.) on a bridge.

Since Route 517 would be blocked by the limited access highway, the state proposes to build an auxiliary Route 517, just north of the corridor and parallel to it, to connect with Route 164.

Price said auxiliary 517 could be built for about $24,000, while the cost of bridging 517 would be $193,000.

Price said the corridor location is the one that best fits the future of U. S. Route 30 westbound from Route 45. Extended westerly from Route 45, the Route 30 corridor would take only a small portion of the McKinley Boy Scout Camp and join existing Route 30 near the Route 172 "Y" west of Lisbon.

Price said the proposed Route 45 corridor would take seven residences, one church (Lisbon Baptist Temple) and a set of farm buildings and farmhouse.

"Only the east on and off ramps will be constructed as part of this project," Price said.

He said the federal government will pay half the construction costs. The state will bear the full cost of obtaining the right-of-way.

Howard Pfeiffer, relocation advisory assistance program adviser, and Van Adamson, division right-of-way acquisition supervisor, spoke briefly. Others present from Division 11 were Levi Kimball, deputy director; Anthony Longer, preliminary design engineer, and Leda Haver, Price's secretary.

Price said the project is programmed for 1972 and could be placed for contracts after July 1, 1971.

—:—

OPPOSING the Route 517 proposal were County Commissioners Charles J. Gause, who said "I think we should have a bridge;" David Miller, Lodge Thorne, Charles Yoos, Warren Browne, Charles Rogan, Robert A. Williams, Pete Gallo, Samuel Drakulich, William Jones, Robert Ashton, John Marshall, Don Adams, County Commissioner R. Max Gard and County Engineer Bert A. Dawson Jr.

Dawson said he would be opposed to the closing of 517 since snow-removal trucks use that route to service 10 county roads to the east.

Thorne said auxiliary 517, being built at a lower level than new 45, "would be a snow bank." He said, "The state put in a bridge for two families on Route 11 down near West Point and I can't see why it can't put one in for 14 families."

Miller said, "Your bypass on 517 will be nothing but an accident hazard." Yoos and Ashton agreed.

Speaking in favor of the Route 45 relocation were H. Jud English, manager of the Columbiana County Motor Club at East Liverpool; Miller, Thorne, Brown, George Kelch, Mayor Clyde B. Pike, Williams, James L. Morrissey, regional planning commission director; G. V. Weinstock, chairman of the Lisbon area Chamber of Commerce, on behalf of the Chamber board; Gallo, Miss Lois Wolfe, Harold Kepner, Drakulich, Jones and Gard.

James W. Boyd of East Liverpool, president of the board of county commissioners, told the Division 11 group, "I think you have done wonderfully well with this layout; I want to congratulate you."

Kelch said the relocation of Route 30 west would be a great advancement for this community. "These proposals you are presenting are the best thing that has happened since we lost the railroads years ago," he added.

Approximately 100 attended the hearing. Price said written statements for or against the proposals may be submitted to Deputy Director Kimball at New Philadelphia until May 26.

Report Slated On Route 62

COLUMBUS, Ohio — The State Controlling Board Thursday authorized the State Highway Department to hire consulting engineers to prepare a design report and plans for construction of 10 miles of new Route 62 in Columbiana, Stark and Mahoning Counties.

The 10-mile section of proposed new Route 62 is between Route 225 in eastern Stark County to proposed relocated Route 14A in Mahoning County east of Salem.

The proposed new Route 62 will run eastward north of Alliance, Sebring and Salem.

The estimated cost for the four - lane Route 62 with a 60-foot median strip is $10,533,009. Construction is expected to get under wav in 1971.

The project will connect Youngstown with a direct expressway route to Salem, Alliance, Canton and Western Mahoning County.

The controlling board's action follows more than a decade of work by the Alliance and Salem Chambers of Commerce and citizen groups.

The project also follows several meeting by the area's three state representatives, Clarence L. Wetzel, R - Columbiana; James Thorpe, R - Alliance, and Walter Paulo, R - Canfield, with highway officials.

The legislators pointed out that the area long has lagged behind many parts of the state in super - highway construction.

"The action of the controlling board means the department of highways is taking this project seriously," they said.

However, all agreed that it will require considerable more effort to ensure completion of the project.

Bridge

quired in Ohio and in West Virginia on the sites, but the two governors yesterday said obtaining tentative agreement on a site now would facilitate the legal procedures.

—:—

OF THE three sites suggested in a feasibility study made for West Virginia, two were given priority at yesterday's discussion.

A bridge site linking the Chester shore with the Ohio side on a line with Washington St., East Liverpool, was termed impractical because of the amount of downtown property which would be required for approaches.

The other two locations would be just upstream from the present Chester Bridge and another farther north, crossing the river over the lower end of Babb's Island.

Gov. Moore pointed out the northernmost location would provide direct connection with Route 30 at the Chester hill, making an easiter approach and relocating the Route 30 traffic flow from Carolina Ave., Chester, a traffic congestion problem for many years.

The West Virginia governor said this upstream site would be more expensive, but that the state would be willing to undertake it because of the added advantages of traffic flow.

HE INDICATED this would be an additional problem for construction on the Ohio side due to the steep hillside between the Pennsylvania Ave. 'Hill Road' and the River Rd.

The new span would link with the planned extension of the Freeway from 3rd St. and Jefferson St. to Mulberry St. in the East End. A report from the Glaus, Pyle & Schomer firm of Youngstown, consulting engineers, is awaited by the Ohio Department of Highways in order for the department to formally consider the three sites.

However, the meeting of the two governors yesterday and the gathering today is seen as a preliminary move to weigh the sites and make a recommendation so as to expedite the procedures as much as possible.

The two leaders said yesterday they wanted the local officials on both sides of the river to be fully informed and to be in agreement on the sites before state action.

GOV. MOORE told his Ohio counterpart seven new bridges may have to be built across the Ohio River. He did not name the other five locations.

The two agreed on a joint effort to build a new bridge between Newport, Ohio, and St. Marys, W. Va. where the present span has been closed to traffic. It is similar to the Silver Bridge which collapsed at Point Pleasant in December 1967, killing 46.

Rep. Clarence Wetzel, who attended yesterday's gathering, said he will continue to press for passage of a bill introduced in the House Tuesday which would enable the Ohio Bridge Commission to erect spans. The commission presently can only purchase already constructed bridges.

West Virginia highway officials and State Police were to inspect the highway congestion at the south side of the Newell Bridge today.

The Homer Laughlin China Co., parents firm of the Newell Bridge Co., has revised the work schedule of the pottery employes to ease the 3 p. m. peak traffic congestion.

Departments are releasing workers at 2, 2:30, 3 and 3:30 p. m. instead of the previous general 3 p. m. quitting time. Other industries are continuing their regular schedules.

Glenn Hall of the bridge firm said the traffic flow is improving over the first day problems. He said the bridge is operating "fairly smoothly."

A Hancock County Deputy Sheriff directs traffic at the peak hours. Hall said the traffic control period may have to be extended.

Traffic over the span has tripled, Hall said, since the Chester Bridge was closed to all traffic Wednesday.

The mishap caused a total of $6,500 in damages, with four new 1969 model cars involved.

Police said the accident occurred when Ivicek lost control while entering Route 51 from the River Rd. The vehicle struck three guardrails, bounced off, swerved right and into the Friend Pontiac Sales, where it rammed three new cars and a light pole. The car then pivoted and sheared another light pole, which fell on the roof of a fourth new car.

of state, William P. Rogers; former Justice Arthur J. Goldberg; and two federal court of appeals judges, Henry Friendly and Warren Burger.

But perhaps more important is the appointment of new justices who will still any doubt that the court is a citadel of objectivity and probity.

The shadow fell on the court a week ago last Sunday when Life magazine reported that Fortas, shortly after being seated on the Supreme Court, had accepted and kept for 11 months a $20,000 fee from the family foundation of Louis E. Wolfson, a Florida industrialist and former client.

Fortas, appointed to the court in 1965, at first said he had been tendered a fee to do writing and research for the foundation regarding racial problems and human rights, but had returned the money because he didn't have the time. He did not say then how much money was involved or how long he kept the fee.

Webber said he has already notified the Ohio Department of Health and other government agencies about the condition.

He said raw sewage is being channeled into the Ohio River from a sewer serving the area which is not on the city sewer lines.

ANN LANDERS

'He's There, Ain't He?'

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: My husband never was very demonstrative, but since we've been married he refusd to say one tender or loving word to me. We are not old fogies, Ann. I'm 27. Gorko is 28.

Last night we were watching a movie on TV. It was the movie we had seen together on our first date. I remember so well how Gorko held my hand and squeezed it during the romantic parts.

When the TV movie ended I was floating on a cloud. I turned to Gorko and asked, "Honey, do you love me?" He grunted," I'm here, ain't I?"

Why are some men so insensitive? How can a woman get her husband to say sweet things to her? — GORKO'S WIFE.

Dear Wife: Some men aren't much when it comes to fancy language and apparently Gorko is among them. It's not that these men don't feel anything, it's simply that they are unable to verbalize.

Words can be heart-warming, reassuring and great for the go, but in the final analysis, it's how the guy treats you that counts. So don't be too critical, Honey. In Gorko's words, "He's there, ain't he?"

Smoked Out

Dear Ann: A few days ago I was riding the bus to work. Two men were sitting across the aisle smoking their fool heads off. There was a sign on the bus that said, NO SMOKING.

The ventilaton was such that I was getting the smoke right in my face. I fanned myself and made it obvious that their smoke was bothersome. They ignored me. Then I began to cough. They continued to puff away.

When they finished their cigarettes I heaved a sigh of relief. Within half a minute they lit up again. At that point I went to the bus driver and reported them. The driver told me he could do nothing unless I signed a complaint. So I signed. The driver then went back and told the men they'd have to put out their cigarettes.

Why did I have to sign something? Doesn't the driver have the authority to make passengers obey the rules of his bus? Please explain. — CTA CUSTOMER.

-:-

Dear Customer: The bus drivers in Chicago, and everwhere else in the U.S., so far as I know, have the authority to ask a passenger to stop smoking.

It is against the law (city ordinance) to smoke on a bus. People who break this law can be arrested.

Mechanics Friend

Dear Ann: You've lost a fan. I used to think you were tops, but no more.

Recently, in a confidential at the foot of the column, you referred to a garage mechanic as a "grease monkey." Just because a fellow works around grease, does that make him a grease monkey? You work with a typewriter. Would you care to be called a typewriter monkey?

Your careless use of the language was an insult to many fine people. I feel you owe them an apology. — GARAGE MECHANIC'S WIFE.

-:-

Dear Wife: This typewriter monkey offers her humble apologies to all the grease monkeys who took offense. None was intended. Many mechanic use the term themselves.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Fourth Parma School LevyVote Set June 10

PARMA, Ohio (AP)—Parma School District officials hope that their growing school crisis will come to an end June 10 when voters have their fourth opportunity since November to pass an operating levy.

The first three levy proposals were defeated, leaving the 25,000-student school district short of funds for the fall of the 1969 school year. Teachers boycotted classes over a failure to obtain salary increases promised if the levies passed.

The board of education voted Thursday night to resubmit the 9.4-mill additional operating levy that voters turned down 19,107-17,871 May 6.

Fourth Parma School LevyVote Set June 10

PARMA, Ohio (AP)—Parma School District officials hope that their growing school crisis will come to an end June 10 when voters have their fourth opportunity since November to pass an operating levy.

The first three levy proposals were defeated, leaving the 25,000-student school district short of funds for the fall of the 1969 school year. Teachers boycotted classes over a failure to obtain salary increases promised if the levies passed.

The board of education voted Thursday night to resubmit the 9.4-mill additional operating levy that voters turned down 19,107-17,871 May 6.

The DOCTOR Says

Removal Of Baker's Cyst Provides Relief

Q — I have a Baker's cyst. What causes it and what can be done for it?

A — A Baker's cyst is a distended bursa behind the knee joint. It may be caused by excessive use of the joint, arthritis or injury but in many cases no cause is apparent. Hydrocortisone injected into the area may give relief but in most victims surgical removal of the cyst is the only way to get lasting relief.

Dr Brandstadt

Q — My husband has had several sebaceous cysts removed. What causes them? Why do they always become infected?

A — These cysts or wens are caused by an obstruction in one of the oil glands in the skin. Since disease germs abound on the normal skin, they can easily gain access to these cysts, especially if the cysts are squeezed. It is wise to let them alone unless they are in a location where they are subject to constant irritation or are unslightly.

Q — What is a branchial cyst? Is an operation advisable?

A — Such a cyst originates from a branchial cleft that corresponds to a gill in a fish. Such clefts are present in all developing human embryos but are normally obliterated before birth. When this fails to occur the cyst appears as a sweeling in the neck. It causes no symptoms unless it becomes infected, in which case it must be opened and drained. If not infected, surgical removal is usually advisable.

Q — My doctor says I have an ovarian cyst. What caused it? Is an operation necessary?

A — These cysts are developmental defects and are very common. Most of the smaller ones require no treatment but if they measure more than 2½ inches in diameter or cause symptoms they should be removed.

A — Fear of being confined in a small space, like all other baseless fears, usually requires treatment by a psychiatrist. You might, however, try taking a tranquilizer when you have to travel by train or plane.

Tovar's Single In Ninth Ruins McNally's No-Hit Bid

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

The 1968 Pirates a sixth-place finisher were a streaky club.

Nothing shows this better than figures from the National League Green Book, which has the Pirates with the longest winning streak of the season, ten, from June 13-20; and the longest losing streak of the season, ten, from July 6-15.

The Pirates also scored the most runs in a game, 19 on Aug. 21 at Cincinnati. Their hit total of 23 that game was also a season's high. The Pirates played the season's longest game by time, three hours and 20 minutes, at Philadelphia May 3.

Individually Willie Stragell's 7 RBI's in a game were tied for high, as were the five hits in a game by Stargell and Roberto Clemente. Don Clendenon, of all people, set some fielding records. He led the league's first basemen in double plays for the fifth year, a major league record, and the fourth consecutive year, which tied a record. Bill Mazeroski led the league's second basemen in assists for the ninth year, extending his own major league record and set a National League record for most games for a second baseman, 1,866. Elroy Face established National League standards for most games as a pitcher, 802, and most games in relief, 775.

Matty Alou was third hardest batter in the league to strike out, fanning only once every 23 times up. Mazersoki was eighth, fanning once every 14.6 times.

EAST LIVERPOOL'S Al Bailey, freshman coach at Duquesne, is mentioned as a possibility for the Cleveland State coaching job.

The post became vacant when John McLendon took the head coaching job with the Denver Rockets, becoming the ABA's first Negro coach. McLendon previously had coached in the defunct ABL in 1961-62. Ed Jucker, ousted as coach of the Cincinnati Royals when Bob Cousy was hired, is another possibility for the Cleveland State job.

Oriole Hurler Allows Lone Hit

Cesar Tovar called his shot and the last guy to be surprised by it was poor Dave McNally.

McNally had mowed down Minnesota without a hit for 8 1-3 innings Thursday night and with Baltimore leading 5-0, th game was hardly in doubt. But McNally's no-hitter was another story because there was Tovar coming up to bat in the ninth.

Tovar, just the pesky kind of a hitter that a pitcher hates to see in that spot, stroked the spoiling single and McNally had to be satisfied with a one-hitter.

In other American League games, Detroit tripped Chicago 2-1 in 10 innings and Kansas City whipped Cleveland 5-2. The other teams were not scheduled.

"I told my teammates I'm going to hit it off him," said Tovar, who ruined McNally's no-hit bid with his single. "I hit McNally pretty good. I usually get two hits off of him. But he pitched too good tonight."

McNally knew he was in trouble when Tovar came up to bat.

"Tovar always gets his hits off me," said the left-hander, who won his sixth straight game.

It was the second one-hitter for McNally, who threw only 95 pitches and faced just 29 batters. He pitched one against Washington in 1964 which was broken up by Don Lock in the eighth inning. Tovar also ended six innings of no-hit work by McNally against the Twins in a game last year.

Andy Etchebarren's two-run triple gave the Orioles a quick lead in the second inning and McNally coasted as Baltimore steadily increased its bulge. Boog Powell also drove in two runs for the Orioles.

Dick McAuliffe's leadoff homer in the 10th beat Chicago for Detroit. It was the fifth homer of the year for the Tigers' second baseman.

Jim Northrup had tied the score for Detroit with a homer in the seventh, wiping out a 1-0 Chicago lead built on two walks and Ed Herrmann's RBI single.

Ed Kirkpatrick drove in four runs—three of them with a homer—leading Kansas City past Cleveland and Luis Tiant. It was the seventh straight loss for Tiant, a 21-game winner last year.

The victory ended a four-game losing streak for the Royals.

Tovar Confident Of Hit On Best McNally Pitch

By PAT THOMPSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. PAUL - MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Dave McNally, one pitch away from his first major league no-hitter, says Cesar Tovar ruined the bid on one of his best pitches.

"I was just trying to throw it as hard as I could," said McNally, now 6-0 after a 22-10 season in 1968. "I put everything I had into that pitch."

That was the story of a one-hitter.

Tovar, who said he knew he was going to get a hit, lined the low inside fast ball into centerfield for a clean single with one out in the ninth inning.

Tovar was erased in a double play and the Baltimore Orioles breezed to a 5-0 victory Thursday night as McNally faced only 29 batters and threw but 95 pitches.

"It was a good pitch," said Orioles catcher Andy Etchebarren, who is McNally's road trip roomie. "He threw that ball good."

Etchebarren, despite blooping a two-run triple off Jim Kaat in the second to open the scoring, seemed to be the most dejected Oriole in the dressing about Tovar spoiling the nohitter.

"Dave threw exceptional stuff tonight," he said, ignoring barbs from other Orioles that he had called the wrong pitch. "I wasn't worried about Rod Carew, Harmon Killebrew or Tony Oliva. I was worried about this guy (Tovar)."

The cocky Tovar, who boasted he frequently hits safely against the 26-year-old McNally, said he "told my teammates I'm going to hit it off of him."

McNally, who has a 20-2 record since the 1968 All-Star break, retired the first 14 batters he faced until walking Leo Cardenas in the fifth.

Oliva also drew a base on balls in the seventh—the only two batters to get more than a two-ball count on McNally.

Life Has Responsibilities, Says Morgan At Banquet

The big question in life is "What's the score, and how much time is left", said By Morgan, speaking at the Buckeye Border Conference banquet at Beaver Local last night.

Morgan, the head football coach at Findlay, said he felt priveledged to be a coach, but noted that everyone has responsibilities — to God, his fellowman and himself. These responsibilities mean you should use your talents to the utmost, put team play ahead of self and strive to be perfect.

Morgan noted that winning should not be the only thing, as some coaches believe, but that winning is important. Attitude is very important to winning, he said, and winners are those who "pay the price" by punishing themselves to achieve success. Morgan also felt that reaction to winning or losing is important. Winners should not be arrogant or complacent, and losers should bounce back.

Morgan has compiled a 35-20-1 record in five years at Findlay and his team was the NAIA runner-up in 1964. He previously coached 10 years at Geneva.

Conference championship trophies were awarded to Wellsville in track and basketball, to Jefferson Union in football, to Springfield in golf and to Carrollton in ninth grade basketball. The baseball championship has not yet been decided. Springfield is 4-1, Beaver Local and Jefferson Junion 4-2 and Carrollton 4-2-1.

The league all - star teams were recognized and got certificates. Basketball all - stars are John Bobalik, Bill Miller, Joe D'Angelo and Ken Kornbau of Wellsville; Dave Mason of Beaver Local; Rob Carter of Southern Local; Jack McConnaughy of Springfield; Ron Pytash of Jefferson Union and Dan Robertson and Rick Bodnar of Toronto.

Football all - stars were Bruce Clark, Bob Brown, Ron Pytash, Jim Hannan, Don Pytash and Ed Eisnaugle of Jefferson Union; Frank Francis, Jim Ewing, Butch Dangelo and Rich Rose of Southern Local; Rick Palmer, Jim Bowersock, Fred Brown, Lew Brown, Scott Dubberly and Dave Doak of Beaver Local; Dennis McCarty, John Weeda and Don Collins of Wellsville; Dan Harris, John Pope, Bob Voorhees and John Clegg of Toronto; and Tom Culp of Southern Local.

Beaver Local principal Ted Taylor, serving as conference president this year, opening the meeting with an invocation and served as m.c. The Beaver Local cheerleaders prepared and served the dinner.

Center Nips Midland Nine In Eighth 5-3

A two - out, two - run single by Pat D'eramo in the eighth inning gave Center a 5-3 win at Midland in a Section 4 baseball game Thursday.

Mike Zugay had opened the inning with a walk and Paul Watson got a pinch single and then stole second, setting the stage for D'eramo's hit. Scott Newtz, who went the distance, was the losing pitcher. Mike Perich got the win in relief of Randy Geist.

Midland scored twice in the third without benefit of a hit. Newtz and Mark and Greg Branud walked to load the bases and Dave Matteo squeezed home one run. Another scored on an error. In the fifth, Midland tied the score again when Newtz walked, Bob Prodonovich was safe on an error and Matteo singlel, one of only two Midland hits.

Rides 3 Winners

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Mike Manganello rode a triple at Churchill Downs Thursday for the second straight day.

Courtney Shoots 66, Leads Colonial Golf

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — It was so appropriate it was almost embarrassing.

As Chuck Courtney, an obscure long-shot in a field of the world's best shot-makers, approached the 18th green a burglar alarm went off. And the blond Californian promptly stole off with the first round lead in the $125,000 Colonial National Invitation Golf Tournament.

"If I'd made that putt on 18, I'd really have felt like a thief," Courtney quipped after subduing the reconstructed, 7,175 yard, par 70 Colonial Country Cloub course in a sparkling 66, just one stroke off the competitive course record.

He held a two stroke lead over burly Jack Nicklaus, veteran Billy Maxwell and Dick Crawford, grouped at 68, going into today's second round. Tied at 69 are Bob Charles of New Zealand, Dave Stockton, Miller Barber and England's Tony Jacklin.

A group of nine is at par 70, including South African Gary Player, veteran Art Wall, Australian Bruce Crampton and Deane Beman, winner of last week's Texas Open.

Courtney, 28, winner of the 1964 St. Paul Open and the 1967 Puerto Rican Open, had five birdies—three in a string of four holes—and a lone bogey in establishing his lead Thursday.

"This was a good putting round for me. And when you putt good, your whole game immediately gets better," he said.

And about that burglar alarm?

"It was a concession stand by the 18th green," Courtney laughed. "It went off just as I was about to make my first putt. I missed it, but really, it wasn't that loud and it didn't bother me.

"I told Jack (McGowan, his playing partner) to go over and answer the phone. I guess it was either kids or moisture that caused the thing to go off."

Arnold Palmer, Masters champion George Archer and Gene Littler, the season's leading money winner, all had 73s. Defending champion Billy Casper had a 71 and PGA champion Julius Boros a 72.

The grass race will be run as the second event on the program, completing the daily double.

Rides 3 Winners

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Mike Manganello rode a triple at Churchill Downs Thursday for the second straight day.

Courtney Shoots 66, Leads Colonial Golf

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — It was so appropriate it was almost embarrassing.

As Chuck Courtney, an obscure long-shot in a field of the world's best shot-makers, approached the 18th green a burglar alarm went off. And the blond Californian promptly stole off with the first round lead in the $125,000 Colonial National Invitation Golf Tournament.

"If I'd made that putt on 18, I'd really have felt like a thief," Courtney quipped after subduing the reconstructed, 7,175 yard, par 70 Colonial Country Cloub course in a sparkling 66, just one stroke off the competitive course record.

He held a two stroke lead over burly Jack Nicklaus, veteran Billy Maxwell and Dick Crawford, grouped at 68, going into today's second round. Tied at 69 are Bob Charles of New Zealand, Dave Stockton, Miller Barber and England's Tony Jacklin.

A group of nine is at par 70, including South African Gary Player, veteran Art Wall, Australian Bruce Crampton and Deane Beman, winner of last week's Texas Open.

Courtney, 28, winner of the 1964 St. Paul Open and the 1967 Puerto Rican Open, had five birdies—three in a string of four holes—and a lone bogey in establishing his lead Thursday.

"This was a good putting round for me. And when you putt good, your whole game immediately gets better," he said.

And about that burglar alarm?

"It was a concession stand by the 18th green," Courtney laughed. "It went off just as I was about to make my first putt. I missed it, but really, it wasn't that loud and it didn't bother me.

"I told Jack (McGowan, his playing partner) to go over and answer the phone. I guess it was either kids or moisture that caused the thing to go off."

Arnold Palmer, Masters champion George Archer and Gene Littler, the season's leading money winner, all had 73s. Defending champion Billy Casper had a 71 and PGA champion Julius Boros a 72.

Grass Racing, the favorite of America's horse racing fans, makes its West Virginia debut tonight when a full field of 10 vie at a flat mile over Waterford Park's lush greensward.

The grass race will be run as the second event on the program, completing the daily double.

Dr. Powder was advanced to first, while Roman Navy moved up to be second. Dr. Powder paid $31.00 and started a 10-5 perfecta worth $99.80.

Allen Orbits Ball; Aaron Slams Two

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's no secret that Rich Allen wants to leave Philadelphia, but one of his mighty home runs may beat him to it.

Allen, favorite target of the Philadelphia boo-birds, sent another baseball into orbit Thursday night. His fifth home run of the season sailed against a sign atop the center field roof at Connie Mack Stadium, 410 feet from the plate and 85 feet high.

The eighth-inning shot was only the icing on the cake in the Phillies' 7-0 triumph over Cincinnati but it made manager Bob Skinner's post-game hamburger taste "like sirloin steak" after six consecutive defeats.

In the only other National League action, Atlanta eked out a 6-5 victory over the New York Mets in an afternoon game as Hank Aaron socked the 516th and 517th homers of his career and moved into eighth place in career total bases, passing Lou Gehrig.

The Phillies' evening ended better than it started. They loaded the bases in the first inning with none out and again with one away in the second but Cincinnati's Tony Cloninger escaped both times. In addition, second baseman Cookie Rojas was ejected for protesting a stolen base call.

"This was just what we needed," Skinner said. "Everybody got loose after the first two innings. It was pretty hard to believe anything worse could happen."

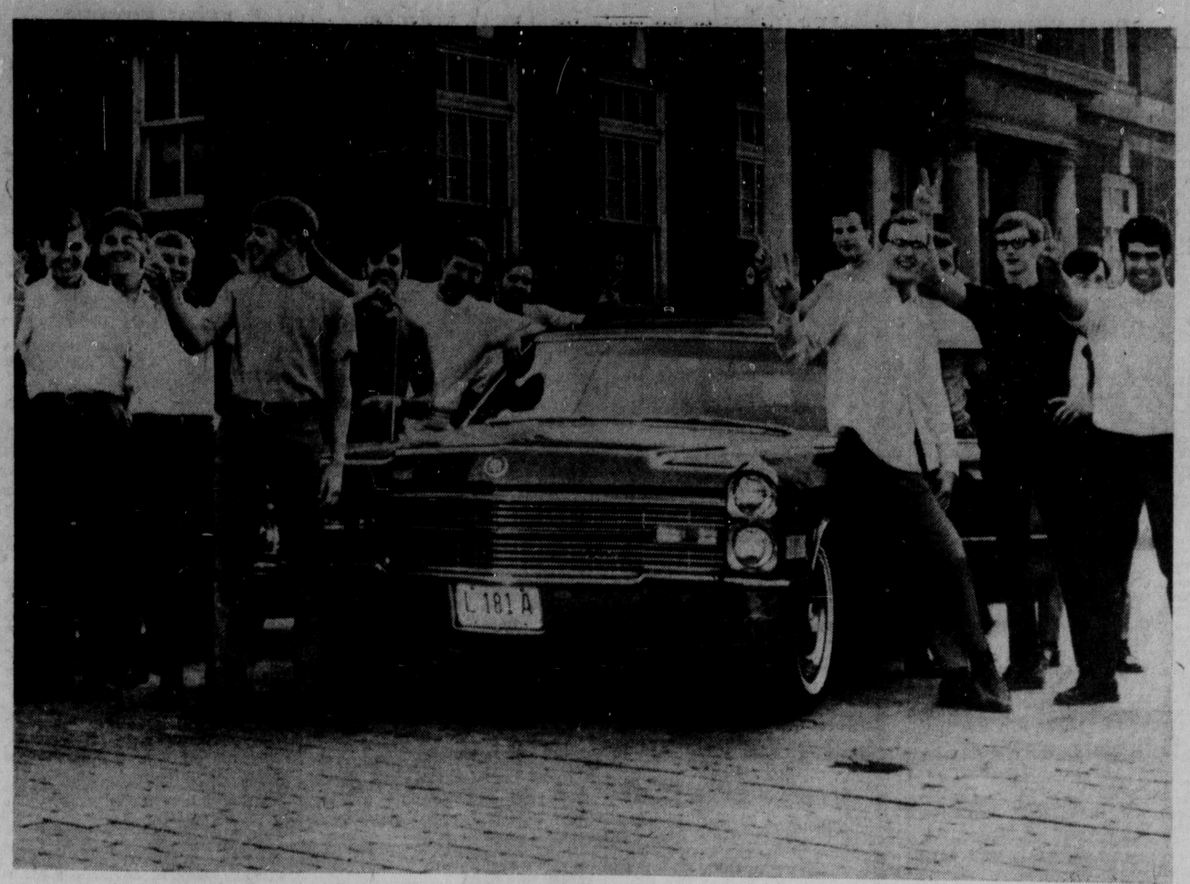
Deron Johnson got the Phils started in the third with a run-scoring single after Allen had stroked the first of three singles preceding his homer and stolen second.

The same combination made it 2-0 in the fifth. Allen singled, Johnson doubled him home and later scored himself on an error. The Phils kayoed Cloninger with three more in the sixth, including an RBI hit by Allen, and the slugging first baseman wrapped it up with his titanic homer in the eighth off rookie John Noriega.

Rick Wise hurled the shutout, a five-hitter.

The Braves, thanks to Aaron's walloping and Pat Jarvis' pitching, held a 6-2 lead going into the eighth. But the Mets rallied for three runs against Jarvis and Cecil Upshaw and threatened to pull it out in the ninth.

But with the bases loaded and one out, Upshaw got Ken Boswell to hit into a force at the plate and second baseman Felix Millan raced into short right field to snag Cleon Jones' soft liner.



MEMBERS OF THE East Liverpool High School baseball team are shown as they departed for Phillo this morning to meet Canton South in the Regional baseball tournament. The Potters were to play at noon today.

Andretti, Foyt Fight For Indianapolis Pole

By DALE BURGESS
Associated Press Sports Writer

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Mario Andretti and A.J. Foyt, a pair of former national champions, will be top contenders Saturday for the pole position in the 53rd 500-mile auto race May 30 at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

The top speed in Saturday's 10-mile time trials will win the No. 1 starting slot for the $750,000 classic regardless of performances in addition qualifying sessions Sunday and the following weekend.

About $40,000 in special prizes will be paid for qualifying performances.

The qualifying record for four laps around the 2½-mile asphalt course is 171.559 miles per hour, set last year by Joe Leonard, San Jose, Calif., in a turbine-powered Lotus. His Pratt & Whitney engine since has been barred by new limitations on turbines.

Andretti, Italian native now operating out of Nazareth, Pa., drove four successive practice laps Thursday at unofficial speeds over 161 in a new four-wheel drive Lotus with a turbo-charged Ford engine.

He won the 500 pole in 1966 and 1967 but was stopped both times by mechanical trouble in the race.

Foyt, from Houston, three-time winner of the 500, was the pole winner in 1965 but that was one of his 11 Indianapolis starts when he was stubbed by car failure.

He turned his first lap over 170 Thursday, 170.1 in a Coyote-Turbochared Ford of his own design.

None of the other 70 cars at the track has been over 169.5 and only Roger McCluskey of Tucson, Ariz., has reached that level-in a Foyt Coyote.

Sixteen cars have been practicing at over 165, with some duplication of drivers. The full 33-car field last year averaged 165.498 but the slowest did only 161.124.

Twenty top drivers, polled this week, made a consensus guess of 172.532 for pole winner's speed Saturday. Andretti called it 172:2 and Foyt guessed 172.5.

The opening day of the 500 qualifications, 10-mile runs by one car at a time, are preferred by some speed buffs to the race. It's unquestionably the best-attended preliminary in sports, with a crowd estimated upward of 150,000.

The Speedway never gives a gate figure, including Memorial Day when crowds are estimated up to 300,000.

Tiant Loses 7th In Row, Royals Win

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Cleveland Indians' latest winning streak was snapped at two games Thursday night as Luis Tiant failed in his eighth start to break into the victory column. He has lost seven games and was not the pitcher of record in his other start.

The Kansas City Royals took the final game of a three-game series, 5-2, after the Indians won the first two contests to equal their longest winning streak of the season.

The Indians will try to get another streak going tonight when they meet the Oakland Athletics in the opener of a three-game series at Cleveland.

Ed Kirkpatrick drove in four runs with a homer and a sacrifice fly to lead the Royals over the Indians and help Mike Hedlund to his second victory in three decisions.

Hedlund, a 22-year-old right-hander, was taken from the Indians for $175,000 in last October's expansion draft. He limited the Tribe to three hits until he tired in the seventh and Moe Drabowsky pitched the last 2 1-3 innings.

Kirkpatrick's homer was the 13th off Tiant in 44 1-3 innings this season. He gave up only 16 in 258 innings last year when he had a 21-9 record and his 1.60 earned run average was the best in the American League.

Tiant blanked the Royals for three innings and they got an unearned run in the fourth when Jerry Adair reached on an error by shortstop Larry Brown and scored on a double by Jim Campanis.

Kirkpatrick hit his second homer of the season in the fifth following a walk to Pat Kelly and a single by Mike Fiore. His sacrifice fly came in the 7th after Joe Foy singled, stole second and went on to third on catcher Ray Fosse's throwing error.

Cleveland got a run in the sixth on a triple by Zoilo Versalles and Jose Cardenal's infield out.

Singles by Lee Maye, Brown and Max Alvis in the seventh produced the Indians' other run and sent Hedlund to the showers.

Pillar Hurls 2-Hitter For Western Win

Western Beaver edged Monaca 3-2 Thursday at Western Beaver behind the two - hit pitching of Joe Pillar.

Bob Petroski, who allowed only four hits, took the loss. Western scored the winning run in the fourth when Chuck Kelker walked, took third on a single by Pillar and scored when Petroski made a wild pick - off throw at third.

Western had taken a 2-0 lead in the first when Ron Misorski walked, John Petchell singled and Kelker tripled.

Western is now 3-5 in Section 4 play.

In Pimlico Workout

Prince Near World Mark In Speedy Half-Mile Run

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

BALTIMORE (AP) — Majestic Prince is ready—jet speed ready—for Saturday's Preakness Stakes, the second leg of the Triple Crown.

Frank McMahon's winner of the Kentucky Derby zoomed a half mile over the Pimlico track Thursday morning in 45 seconds, just a fifth of a second off the world record set by Tamrin's Jet in a race at Sunland Park in New Mexico earlier this year.

The powerful chestnut ripped off the first quarter in 22 4-5 and three-eighths in 33 4-5. He galloped out five-eighths in 58, a fifth of a second lower than the Pimlico record set by Vatiant Bull in a race April 28, 1967.

"He is ready as a man can make him," said trainer Johnny Longden, who rode Majestic Prince in the workout and then entered him in the Preakness where he will meet seven other 3-year-olds, including Rokeby Stable's Arts and Letters, the Derby runner-up.

Top Knight, owned by the estate of Steven B. Wilson, winner of the Flamingto and Florida Derby but a disappointing fifth in the Kentucky Derby, also was entered after blowing out a half mile in 46 2-5.

The field, in order of post position, and the jockey assignments:

Each will carry 126 pounds for the 1 3-16-mile classic.

Post time is 5:40 p.m., EDT, for the richest of the Triple Crown races which, if all eight start, will have a gross purse of $182,000, with $129,500 to the winner.

The race will be televised from 5 p.m. to 6 p.m. by CBS, which also will handle the radio broadcast from 5:30 p.m. until the race ends.

Pimlico officials expect a record crowd of 45,000 and there's no doubt that the magnet is Majestic Prince.

Unbeaten in eight previous races, the powerful son of Raise a Native and grandson of Native Dancer, could become the ninth Triple Crown winner. No one has won the Derby, Preakness and Belmont Stakes since Citation in 1948.

Majestic Prince is the early 6-5 favorite, with Aris and Letters rated 3-1 and Top Knight 4-1.

After watching Top Knight go in 46 2-5 and out five-eighths in 59 seconds, trainer Ray Metcalf said he thought the work was too fast but added:

"But he looked real good and handled the track well. He'll have no excuses Saturday. I still don't know what really happened to him in the Derby."

Jay Ray was the only other Preakness contender to work out, and he did three-eighths in a good 35 2-5 in preparing for his first race since he won the California Derby April 19.

Arts and Letters, who completed his workouts Wednesday with a sizzling 1:11 for six furlongs, was on the track for a gallop.

"I thought he ran his best race in the Derby," said trainer Elliott Burch, "and I look for him to do even better in the Preakness, He is in fine shape and was right on his toes this morning."

100 Protesters Continue Sit-In

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Protesters continued their sit-in this morning in a Case Western Reserve University building where they set up headquarters Thursday night.

The 100 protesters in Haydn Hall, a classroom and office building, included students, non-students and black militants rebuffed in an earlier demonstration Thursday afternoon.

The group took over the first floor of the building after being barred from the administration building Thursday afternoon by a blockade formed by fraternity members and athletes at the school. An attempt by protesters to break the blockade led to a pushing and shoving match and brief fisticuffs among several students.

University President Robert W. Morse met outside the administration building with the protesters, read their demands, and, one-by-one, rebuked each demand.

Cloninger Wild, Reds Fall To Phils

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — For a while, pitcher Tony Cloninger was superbly lucky. Then the charm wore off and all that showed was the wildness that plagued him for 5 2-3 innings.

He was honest about it.

"I haven't been able to make the pitches," he admitted after he took the Cincinnati loss against Philadelphia, 7-0. "It's a control problem."

During the first two innings, the Reds bailed him out of bases-loaded situations largely created by him. The Phillies went down in those two frames without a run.

But it wasn't because of Cloninger—who walked two in the first and hit Ron Stone with a pitch and walked another batter in the second.

The bottom fell out for Cloninger and Cincinnati in the third and he began rolling toward his fifth defeat in six decisions.

Cloninger had given up six hits, five walks and three runs when he was relieved by Clay Carroll in the sixth with two out and two runners on. Before the inning ended, three more Philadelphia runners had scored.

John Noriega came in for Carroll at the start of the ninth and Rich Allen promptly hit a 410-foot homer onto the center field roof.

Once again it was mainly a problem of Cincinnati pitching and Philadelphia batters took advantage of it to the tune of 11 hits. However, the Reds also were ineffective at the plate, picking up only five hits.

Allen and Deron Johnson combined for six Philadelphia hits. Rick Wise, 4-2, went the distance for the Phillies.

The Reds return to Crosley Field tonight to begin a 10-game stand. Righthander Jack Fisher is scheduled to start for Cincinnati against the New York Mets who will go with Ted Mc Graw. The two teams are to play a three-game series.

Allen Orbits Ball; Aaron Slams Two

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's no secret that Rich Allen wants to leave Philadelphia, but one of his mighty home runs may beat him to it.

Allen, favorite target of the Philadelphia boo-birds, sent another baseball into orbit Thursday night. His fifth home run of the season sailed against a sign atop the center field roof at Connie Mack Stadium, 410 feet from the plate and 85 feet high.

The eighth-inning shot was only the icing on the cake in the Phillies' 7-0 triumph over Cincinnati but it made manager Bob Skinner's post-game hamburger taste "like sirloin steak" after six consecutive defeats.

In the only other National League action, Atlanta eked out a 6-5 victory over the New York Mets in an afternoon game as Hank Aaron socked the 516th and 517th homers of his career and moved into eighth place in career total bases, passing Lou Gehrig.

The Phillies' evening ended better than it started. They loaded the bases in the first inning with none out and again with one away in the second but Cincinnati's Tony Cloninger escaped both times. In addition, second baseman Cookie Rojas was ejected for protesting a stolen base call.

"This was just what we needed," Skinner said. "Everybody got loose after the first two innings. It was pretty hard to believe anything worse could happen."

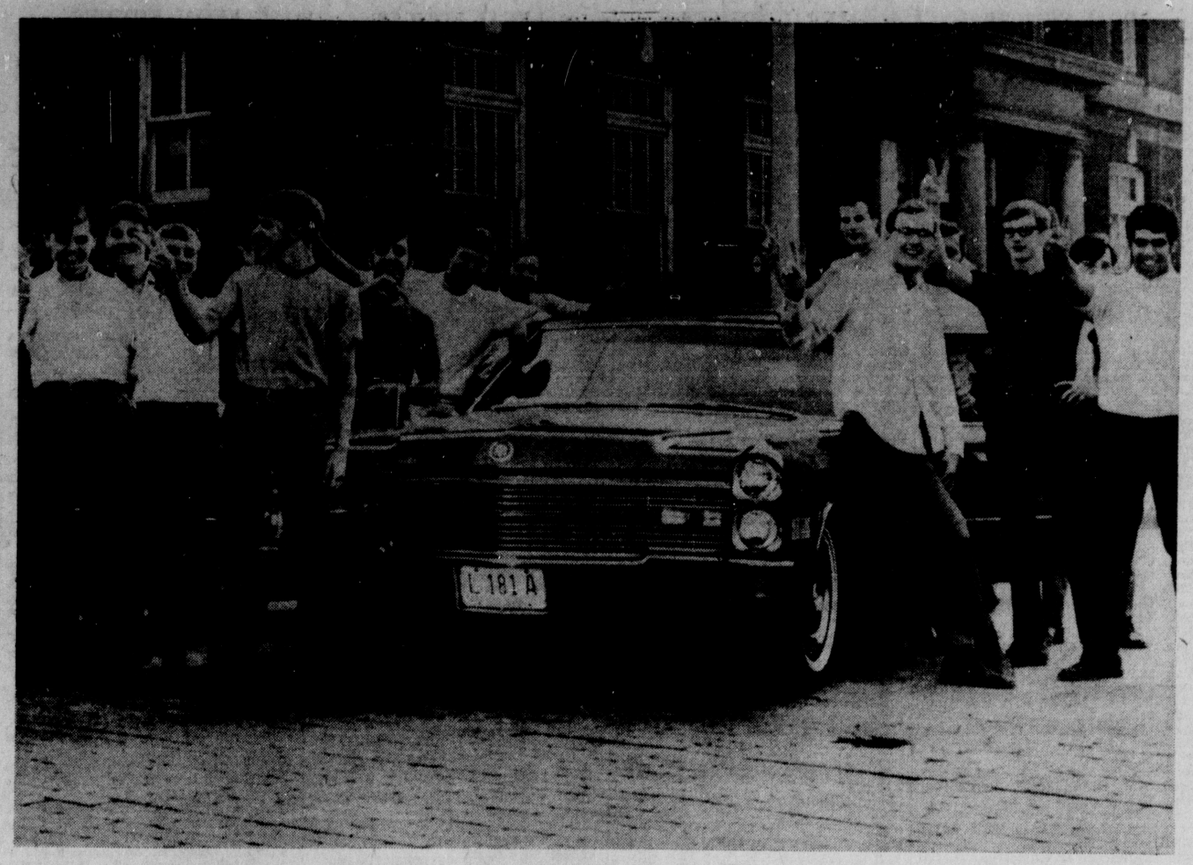
Deron Johnson got the Phils started in the third with a run-scoring single after Allen had stroked the first of three singles preceding his homer and stolen second.

The same combination made it 2-0 in the fifth. Allen singled, Johnson doubled him home and later scored himself on an error. The Phils kayoed Cloninger with three more in the sixth, including an RBI hit by Allen, and the slugging first baseman wrapped it up with his titanic homer in the eighth off rookie John Noriega.

Rick Wise hurled the shutout, a five-hitter.

The Braves, thanks to Aaron's walloping and Pat Jarvis' pitching, held a 6-2 lead going into the eighth. But the Mets rallied for three runs against Jarvis and Cecil Upshaw and threatened to pull it out in the ninth.

But with the bases loaded and one out, Upshaw got Ken Boswell to hit into a force at the plate and second baseman Felix Millan raced into short right field to snag Cleon Jones' soft liner.



MEMBERS OF THE East Liverpool High School baseball team are shown as they departed for Phillo this morning to meet Canton South in the Regional baseball tournament. The Potters were to play at noon today.

Andretti, Foyt Fight For Indianapolis Pole

By DALE BURGESS
Associated Press Sports Writer

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Mario Andretti and A.J. Foyt, a pair of former national champions, will be top contenders Saturday for the pole position in the 53rd 500-mile auto race May 30 at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

The top speed in Saturday's 10-mile time trials will win the No. 1 starting slot for the $750,000 classic regardless of performances in addition qualifying sessions Sunday and the following weekend.

About $40,000 in special prizes will be paid for qualifying performances.

The qualifying record for four laps around the 2½-mile asphalt course is 171.559 miles per hour, set last year by Joe Leonard, San Jose, Calif., in a turbine-powered Lotus. His Pratt & Whitney engine since has been barred by new limitations on turbines.

Andretti, Italian native now operating out of Nazareth, Pa., drove four successive practice laps Thursday at unofficial speeds over 161 in a new four-wheel drive Lotus with a turbo-charged Ford engine.

He won the 500 pole in 1966 and 1967 but was stopped both times by mechanical trouble in the race.

Foyt, from Houston, three-time winner of the 500, was the pole winner in 1965 but that was one of his 11 Indianapolis starts when he was stubbed by car failure.

He turned his first lap over 170 Thursday, 170.1 in a Coyote-Turbochared Ford of his own design.

None of the other 70 cars at the track has been over 169.5 and only Roger McCluskey of Tucson, Ariz., has reached that level-in a Foyt Coyote.

Sixteen cars have been practicing at over 165, with some duplication of drivers. The full 33-car field last year averaged 165.498 but the slowest did only 161.124.

Twenty top drivers, polled this week, made a consensus guess of 172.532 for pole winner's speed Saturday. Andretti called it 172:2 and Foyt guessed 172.5.

The opening day of the 500 qualifications, 10-mile runs by one car at a time, are preferred by some speed buffs to the race. It's unquestionably the best-attended preliminary in sports, with a crowd estimated upward of 150,000.

The Speedway never gives a gate figure, including Memorial Day when crowds are estimated up to 300,000.

Tiant Loses 7th In Row, Royals Win

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Cleveland Indians' latest winning streak was snapped at two games Thursday night as Luis Tiant failed in his eighth start to break into the victory column. He has lost seven games and was not the pitcher of record in his other start.

The Kansas City Royals took the final game of a three-game series, 5-2, after the Indians won the first two contests to equal their longest winning streak of the season.

The Indians will try to get another streak going tonight when they meet the Oakland Athletics in the opener of a three-game series at Cleveland.

Ed Kirkpatrick drove in four runs with a homer and a sacrifice fly to lead the Royals over the Indians and help Mike Hedlund to his second victory in three decisions.

Hedlund, a 22-year-old right-hander, was taken from the Indians for $175,000 in last October's expansion draft. He limited the Tribe to three hits until he tired in the seventh and Moe Drabowsky pitched the last 2 1-3 innings.

Kirkpatrick's homer was the 13th off Tiant in 44 1-3 innings this season. He gave up only 16 in 258 innings last year when he had a 21-9 record and his 1.60 earned run average was the best in the American League.

Tiant blanked the Royals for three innings and they got an unearned run in the fourth when Jerry Adair reached on an error by shortstop Larry Brown and scored on a double by Jim Campanis.

Kirkpatrick hit his second homer of the season in the fifth following a walk to Pat Kelly and a single by Mike Fiore. His sacrifice fly came in the 7th after Joe Foy singled, stole second and went on to third on catcher Ray Fosse's throwing error.

Cleveland got a run in the sixth on a triple by Zoilo Versalles and Jose Cardenal's infield out.

Singles by Lee Maye, Brown and Max Alvis in the seventh produced the Indians' other run and sent Hedlund to the showers.

Pillar Hurls 2-Hitter For Western Win

Western Beaver edged Monaca 3-2 Thursday at Western Beaver behind the two - hit pitching of Joe Pillar.

Bob Petroski, who allowed only four hits, took the loss. Western scored the winning run in the fourth when Chuck Kelker walked, took third on a single by Pillar and scored when Petroski made a wild pick - off throw at third.

Western had taken a 2-0 lead in the first when Ron Misorski walked, John Petchell singled and Kelker tripled.

Western is now 3-5 in Section 4 play.

While unbeaten Majestic Prince, the Kentucky Derby winner, goes after his ninth in a row in the $182,000 Preakness at Pimlico Saturday, there will be action as usual at the other major race tracks in the country.

Heading the stakes lineups elsewhere on the weekend program ar the $100,000 Californian at Hollywood Park and the $50,000 Acorn at Aqueduct. Each probably will attract big fields.

Nodouble, winner of the Santa Anita Handicap for the Verna Lea Farm, is the top weight at 127 pounds in the Californian at 1 1-16 miles.

Some of those likely to oppose him in a large field include Poleax, Rising Market, Indulto, Gamely, Dewan, Don B., London Jet, Prince Pablo, Title Game and Mr. Right.

Big Advance from the Wheatley Stable heads the probables for the one mile Acorn, the first leg of the Triple Crown for 3-year-old fillies.

In Pimlico Workout

Prince Near World Mark In Speedy Half-Mile Run

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

BALTIMORE (AP) — Majestic Prince is ready—jet speed ready—for Saturday's Preakness Stakes, the second leg of the Triple Crown.

Frank McMahon's winner of the Kentucky Derby zoomed a half mile over the Pimlico track Thursday morning in 45 seconds, just a fifth of a second off the world record set by Tamrin's Jet in a race at Sunland Park in New Mexico earlier this year.

The powerful chestnut ripped off the first quarter in 22 4-5 and three-eighths in 33 4-5. He galloped out five-eighths in 58, a fifth of a second lower than the Pimlico record set by Valiant Bull in a race April 28, 1967.

"He is ready as a man can make him," said trainer Johnny Longden, who rode Majestic Prince in the workout and then entered him in the Preakness where he will meet seven other 3-year-olds, including Rokeby Stable's Arts and Letters, the Derby runner-up.

Top Knight, owned by the estate of Steven B. Wilson, winner of the Flamingto and Florida Derby but a disappointing fifth in the Kentucky Derby, also was entered after blowing out a half mile in 46 2-5.

The field, in order of post position, and the jockey assignments:

Each will carry 126 pounds for the 1 3-16-mile classic.

Post time is 5:40 p.m., EDT, for the richest of the Triple Crown races which, if all eight start, will have a gross purse of $182,000, with $129,500 to the winner.

The race will be televised from 5 p.m. to 6 p.m. by CBS, which also will handle the radio broadcast from 5:30 p.m. until the race ends.

Pimlico officials expect a record crowd of 45,000 and there's no doubt that the magnet is Majestic Prince.

Unbeaten in eight previous races, the powerful son of Raise a Native and grandson of Native Dancer, could become the ninth Triple Crown winner. No one has won the Derby, Preakness and Belmont Stakes since Citation in 1948.

Majestic Prince is the early 6-5 favorite, with Aris and Letters rated 3-1 and Top Knight 4-1.

After watching Top Knight go in 46 2-5 and out five-eighths in 59 seconds, trainer Ray Metcalf said he thought the work was too fast but added:

"But he looked real good and handled the track well. He'll have no excuses Saturday. I still don't know what really happened to him in the Derby."

Jay Ray was the only other Preakness contender to work out, and he did three-eighths in a good 35 2-5 in preparing for his first race since he won the California Derby April 19.

Arts and Letters, who completed his workouts Wednesday with a sizzling 1:11 for six furlongs, was on the track for a gallop.

"I thought he ran his best race in the Derby," said trainer Elliott Burch, "and I look for him to do even better in the Preakness, He is in fine shape and was right on his toes this morning."

Cloninger Wild, Reds Fall To Phils

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — For a while, pitcher Tony Cloninger was superbly lucky. Then the charm wore off and all that showed was the wildness that plagued him for 5 2-3 innings.

He was honest about it.

"I haven't been able to make the pitches," he admitted after he took the Cincinnati loss against Philadelphia, 7-0. "It's a control problem."

During the first two innings, the Reds bailed him out of bases-loaded situations largely created by him. The Phillies went down in those two frames without a run.

But it wasn't because of Cloninger—who walked two in the first and hit Ron Stone with a pitch and walked another batter in the second.

The bottom fell out for Cloninger and Cincinnati in the third and he began rolling toward his fifth defeat in six decisions.

Cloninger had given up six hits, five walks and three runs when he was relieved by Clay Carroll in the sixth with two out and two runners on. Before the inning ended, three more Philadelphia runners had scored.

John Noriega came in for Carroll at the start of the ninth and Rich Allen promptly hit a 410-foot homer onto the center field roof.

Once again it was mainly a problem of Cincinnati pitching and Philadelphia batters took advantage of it to the tune of 11 hits. However, the Reds also were ineffective at the plate, picking up only five hits.

Allen and Deron Johnson combined for six Philadelphia hits. Rick Wise, 4-2, went the distance for the Phillies.

The Reds return to Crosley Field tonight to begin a 10-game stand. Righthander Jack Fisher is scheduled to start for Cincinnati against the New York Mets who will go with Ted Mc Graw. The two teams are to play a three-game series.

100 Protesters Continue Sit-In

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Protesters continued their sit-in this morning in a Case Western Reserve University building where they set up headquarters Thursday night.

The 100 protesters in Haydn Hall, a classroom and office building, included students, non-students and black militants rebuffed in an earlier demonstration Thursday afternoon.

The group took over the first floor of the building after being barred from the administration building Thursday afternoon by a blockade formed by fraternity members and athletes at the school. An attempt by protesters to break the blockade led to a pushing and shoving match and brief fisticuffs among several students.

University President Robert W. Morse met outside the administration building with the protesters, read their demands, and, one-by-one, rebuked each demand.

Wrestling Coach Describes Sport To Kiwanis Club

"There is no comparison between high school wrestling and TV wrestling, except that they are both called wrestling," Paul Jackson, Beaver Local wrestling coach, told the Kiwanis Club at the Travelers Hotel Thursday.

Jackson, who said high school wrestling is his favorite sport and subject, added that interscholastic wrestling is the fastest growing sport in Ohio high schools.

Fifteen years ago, 43 schools in Ohio competed in the sectional tournament; this year 456 schools competed and 50-60 more are expected to compete next year, he said.

Jackson explained the scoring system and some recent rule changes. He said he liked wrestling because, "Good officials and good rules make it almost impossible to have a serious injury."

He further explained that a wrestler is "on his own" more than any other sport participant. "He can't even hear or doesn't look to his coach for instructions during a match."

Terry Serago, sophomore; Bill Lucas, junior; and Jim Bowersock, senior, all of Beaver Local, gave a demonstration of wrestling skills.

All three boys have won first, second or third in wrestling competition. Bowersock was named the most valuable player in football, track and wrestling at Beaver Local this year.

Jack Hales introduced Jackson who answered several questions following his talk.

Announcement was made by Elson Davis of the Key Club Convention in Miami.

Dayton Allen, president, read a letter from the district secretary, Robert Latham, commending Keith Steiner, president of the Beaver Local Key Club, for outstanding work at the district and international levels.

Steiner announced the club is selling window cleaner fluid. He thanked members for their support and help on Key Club projects.

Wrestling Coach Describes Sport To Kiwanis Club

"There is no comparison between high school wrestling and TV wrestling, except that they are both called wrestling," Paul Jackson, Beaver Local wrestling coach, told the Kiwanis Club at the Travelers Hotel Thursday.

Jackson, who said high school wrestling is his favorite sport and subject, added that interscholastic wrestling is the fastest growing sport in Ohio high schools.

Fifteen years ago, 43 schools in Ohio competed in the sectional tournament; this year 456 schools competed and 50-60 more are expected to compete next year, he said.

Jackson explained the scoring system and some recent rule changes. He said he liked wrestling because, "Good officials and good rules make it almost impossible to have a serious injury."

He further explained that a wrestler is "on his own" more than any other sport participant. "He can't even hear or doesn't look to his coach for instructions during a match."

Terry Serago, sophomore; Bill Lucas, junior; and Jim Bowersock, senior, all of Beaver Local, gave a demonstration of wrestling skills.

All three boys have won first, second or third in wrestling competition. Bowersock was named the most valuable player in football, track and wrestling at Beaver Local this year.

Jack Hales introduced Jackson who answered several questions following his talk.

Announcement was made by Elson Davis of the Key Club Convention in Miami.

Dayton Allen, president, read a letter from the district secretary, Robert Latham, commending Keith Steiner, president of the Beaver Local Key Club, for outstanding work at the district and international levels.

Steiner announced the club is selling window cleaner fluid. He thanked members for their support and help on Key Club projects.

Man Draws $10 Fine; Absolved In 2nd Case

An East Liverpool district man was fined $10 and costs on one count and acquitted of a second charge after a lengthy hearing Thursday before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

Thomas Kelly of Apples Corners paid the fine after he was found guilty of a charge of "annoying and insulting" Marlene D'Allesio on April 22 "by making obscene remarks and using obscene language."

The court found him not guilty on a charge of "assaulting and grabbing" the young woman on the same date "by putting his arms around her." Kelly was represented by George Aronson. The girl identified herself as an employe of Buddy's Drive - In Restaurant on E. 3rd St., where the alleged incidents took place.

ANNOUNCING THE $2094 VALIANT

WE'VE CUT THE MANUFACTURER'S SUGGESTED RETAIL PRICE $193. SAME CAR. NEW PRICE.

THAT MEANS ONLY $99 DIFFERENCE BETWEEN MAVERICK AND VALIANT. AND LOOK WHAT YOU GET FOR THE DIFFERENCE.

Valiant is small enough to give you the economy and handling you're looking for. Big enough for comfort and stability. And for only another $99 — more of what you want.

More interior room. More luggage space. More horsepower. And fuel economy. Like 23.5 mpg. in the '69 Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials.

More comfort, better handling and stability from a longer wheelbase, wider front track, bigger tires and torsion-bar front suspension.

More stopping power from bigger brakes.

And standard equipment like all-vinyl interior, inside day/night mirror and seat belt retractor.

Proven reliability built in by Chrysler Corporation engineering know-how.

And Valiant is a proven favorite around the world. In fact it is the largest selling U.S. nameplate outside the U.S. and Canada. A pretty good endorsement from people who need transportation tough enough for rugged roads and severe weather.

Valiant gives you the added assurance of proven high resale value, and the backing of Chrysler Corporation's 12 month/12,000 mile warranty on the entire vehicle (excluding tires) and the five year/50,000 mile power train warranty.

So if you're looking for a lot more car for a small difference in price, see East Liverpool Central Service.

Plymouth tells it like it is.

ANNOUNCING THE $2094 VALIANT

WE'VE CUT THE MANUFACTURER'S SUGGESTED RETAIL PRICE $193. SAME CAR. NEW PRICE.

THAT MEANS ONLY $99 DIFFERENCE BETWEEN MAVERICK AND VALIANT. AND LOOK WHAT YOU GET FOR THE DIFFERENCE.

Valiant is small enough to give you the economy and handling you're looking for. Big enough for comfort and stability. And for only another $99 — more of what you want.

More interior room. More luggage space. More horsepower. And fuel economy. Like 23.5 mpg. in the '69 Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials.

More comfort, better handling and stability from a longer wheelbase, wider front track, bigger tires and torsion-bar front suspension.

More stopping power from bigger brakes.

And standard equipment like all-vinyl interior, inside day/night mirror and seat belt retractor.

Proven reliability built in by Chrysler Corporation engineering know-how.

And Valiant is a proven favorite around the world. In fact it is the largest selling U.S. nameplate outside the U.S. and Canada. A pretty good endorsement from people who need transportation tough enough for rugged roads and severe weather.

Valiant gives you the added assurance of proven high resale value, and the backing of Chrysler Corporation's 12 month/12,000 mile warranty on the entire vehicle (excluding tires) and the five year/50,000 mile power train warranty.

So if you're looking for a lot more car for a small difference in price, see East Liverpool Central Service.

Plymouth tells it like it is.

Junior Editors Quiz on WIGS

QUESTION: Why did our early presidents and statesmen wear wigs?

* * *

ANSWER: In very early times, in the hot countries around the Mediterranean Sea, wigs, once called periwigs or perukes, were originated to keep the head cool (1). To a net-like cap which allowed heat to escape, the hair was attached. It could be extended by hoops, leaving an airspace inside, like holding a parasol over the head. Greeks and Romans used less dramatic wigs. The general wearing of wigs began in Europe about 1660. King Louis XIV had luxuriant curls. Certain courtiers got the idea of flattering him by having wigs made which resembled the king's hair. So began a fashion which spread rapidly. French women went to wild extremes with their wigs. By 1705, wigs were powdered white, and by 1716 well-to-do classes generally wore them. By the time of the Revolution, social distinctions were becoming less distinct; the use of wigs was being continued mostly by soldiers, officials, doctors, lawyers and clergymen. That is why we find pictures of our early leaders wearing wigs, such as the handsome example in (3), owned by John Hancock, signer of the Declaration of Independence.

Students At Marietta College Call Off Protest Activities

MARIETTA, Ohio (AP) — Marietta College students, who have been demonstrating for a week over a free speech issue, Thursday called off their protest activities, including round-the-clock picketing and a hunger strike.

The action came after Washington County Common Pleas Court extended until June 16 a temporary injunction permitting Earl Maiman, student body president-elect, to attend classes.

Maiman's suspension May 8 triggered the student protests. The administration said Maiman made "inflammatory" remarks during a roundtable discussion with President Frank E. Duddy Jr.

A spokesman for the Student Free Speech Committee said Thursday night the open demonstrations were discontinued because it became "obvious that any further activity wouldn't bring any more pressure to bear on the administration."

The spokesman said pickets had been removed from in front of the administration building and a six-day hunger strike by about 100 students had ended.

Only further action contemplated, the spokesman said, was to present to the faculty council a plan for restructuring the student government on campus.

This is the issue Maiman and Duddy had been discussing during the roundtable conference.

The court order extending Maiman's injunction means there will be no court action on his case until after the end of the school term.

Familiar 'Heinz 57' Label Canned By Firm

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The familiar keystone label with the name "Heinz 57" has been canned by the H. J. Heinz Co. because the firm now turns out 1,250 varieties of food.

"We have considerable reverence for tradition at Heinz," President R. Burt Gookin said Thursday, "but we believe that the old corporate identifier is too limiting."

The "67 varieties" trademark will still appear on some products, a spokesman said.

Replacing the old trade mark will be a kind of flattened keystone bearing the word "Heinz."

Better Health Through Knowledge

HERNIA

Q. Will exercise strengthen the stomach muscles and make a hernia go away?

A. No. The weak point in the abdomen consists of overlapping layers of fibrous tissue — not muscle — and fibrous tissue doesn't respond to exercise as does muscle. Anyone with a hernia who engages in strenuous exercise is inviting trouble. With certain exceptions, hernias should be corrected surgically.

BABY'S SIGHT

Q. At what age do babies recognize their parents?

A. Infants respond to familiar sounds (such as the mother's voice) quite early. However, the baby's vision remains restricted for a time. The eye of an alert newborn baby can focus on targets only at a particular distance (about 8 inches). The ability to focus steadily improves, however, so that by the end of the fourth month the eye accommodates, or focuses, about as well as the eye of an adult.

Students At Marietta College Call Off Protest Activities

MARIETTA, Ohio (AP) — Marietta College students, who have been demonstrating for a week over a free speech issue, Thursday called off their protest activities, including round-the-clock picketing and a hunger strike.

The action came after Washington County Common Pleas Court extended until June 16 a temporary injunction permitting Earl Maiman, student body president-elect, to attend classes.

Maiman's suspension May 8 triggered the student protests. The administration said Maiman made "inflammatory" remarks during a roundtable discussion with President Frank E. Duddy Jr.

A spokesman for the Student Free Speech Committee said Thursday night the open demonstrations were discontinued because it became "obvious that any further activity wouldn't bring any more pressure to bear on the administration."

The spokesman said pickets had been removed from in front of the administration building and a six-day hunger strike by about 100 students had ended.

Only further action contemplated, the spokesman said, was to present to the faculty council a plan for restructuring the student government on campus.

This is the issue Maiman and Duddy had been discussing during the roundtable conference.

The court order extending Maiman's injunction means there will be no court action on his case until after the end of the school term.

Familiar 'Heinz 57' Label Canned By Firm

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The familiar keystone label with the name "Heinz 57" has been canned by the H. J. Heinz Co. because the firm now turns out 1,250 varieties of food.

"We have considerable reverence for tradition at Heinz," President R. Burt Gookin said Thursday, "but we believe that the old corporate identifier is too limiting."

The "67 varieties" trademark will still appear on some products, a spokesman said.

Replacing the old trade mark will be a kind of flattened keystone bearing the word "Heinz."

Better Health Through Knowledge

HERNIA

Q. Will exercise strengthen the stomach muscles and make a hernia go away?

A. No. The weak point in the abdomen consists of overlapping layers of fibrous tissue — not muscle — and fibrous tissue doesn't respond to exercise as does muscle. Anyone with a hernia who engages in strenuous exercise is inviting trouble. With certain exceptions, hernias should be corrected surgically.

BABY'S SIGHT

Q. At what age do babies recognize their parents?

A. Infants respond to familiar sounds (such as the mother's voice) quite early. However, the baby's vision remains restricted for a time. The eye of an alert newborn baby can focus on targets only at a particular distance (about 8 inches). The ability to focus steadily improves, however, so that by the end of the fourth month the eye accommodates, or focuses, about as well as the eye of an adult.
